O'Neill Calls Legislature For June 25

Four Issues Will Be Presented; Assembly To Finish Up June 27

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Gov. C. William O'Neill today called a special session of the Legislature for next Wednesday, June 25.

He asked the lawmakers to:

Extend state jobless benefits.

Appropriate more money for poor relief.

Ban billboards on interstate highways.

Make it easier to extend sewer and water lines outside cities.

The governor told newsmen he expected the session to complete work by the evening of Friday, June 27.

The session will begin at 2 p.m. Wednesday. O'Neill said he would appear personally on the opening day to deliver his message on the business at hand.

He said supplemental unemployment benefits (SUB) would not be included in the call. But he added that SUB could be considered because the session would deal with jobless benefits.

Only subjects opened by the call can be considered by a special session.

O'Neill asked a 13-week extension of the 26-week maximum period for paying state unemployment compensation. Workers who exhausted their state benefits between June 30, 1957, and April 1, 1959, would be eligible for extended compensation if they still are unemployed.

Weekly payments could not exceed the maximum amount of $39

Woman Arrested In Kidnaping Case

TORONTO, Ont. (AP) — Police today arrested a woman they named as Greta Goede, 40-year-old blonde German, and said she is wanted in Montreal on a charge of kidnaping the 2½-year-old son of a wealthy chain store buyer.

Inspector John Nimmo said the woman was charged with attempted extortion in a case in Toronto. He said she may be taken to Montreal later.

Denies She Was Nursemaid

She had denied she was the Greta Goede, a nursemaid, wanted in Montreal and declared somebody may be using her name.

Joel Reitman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Cyril Reitman, was found safe and well in Ottawa Tuesday after being in the hands of a kidnaper 48 hours.

The boy disappeared with his nursemaid from his Montreal home Saturday night while his parents were at a dance.

He was found at the home of an Ottawa taxi driver who said the boy had been left in his hands by a woman shopper.

The woman told police she wanted her name cleared in the case. She said she did not know the Reitmans and had been in Brampton with friends since May 25.

Crudely Written Note Left

A crudely written note left in the Reitman's suburban home said both the boy and the maid would be killed unless the family left $10,000 in a downtown Montreal bus terminal. The couple left the money and police staked out the terminal with plainclothesmen but no one appeared.

Underwriters To Study City Fire Protection

A three-man survey team of the National Board of Fire Underwriters from New York City arrived in Marion Tuesday to begin a two-week study of the city's fire protection.

N. F. Odell, chief of the survey team, said the city's fire fighting facilities, equipment, fire alarm system, fire prevention activities, electrical wiring regulations and water facilities will be the main facilities studied.

After completing its inspections here, the survey team will prepare a written report on its findings and local fire insurance rates will be adjusted according to the findings. Mr. Odell said that the survey team's report probably will be completed and released in four to six months.

The last full survey of the city's facilities was made by the national board in 1940 and a supplemental survey was made in 1954. Mr. Odell said that current study is a "full survey" and will replace the 1940 report.

Other members of the survey team are: C. L. Frick and W. E. Proper.

Asserts Budget Will Balance in '59

Skipton Hits Talk of Big State Deficit, New Taxes

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Finance Director John A. Skipton shrugs off predictions of a big state deficit, requiring new taxes.

He asserts his books will balance a year from now when the state ends its next bookkeeping year.

"We will end 1959 with a balanced budget," Skipton says with confidence. "There won't be a deficit."

He admits it won't be easy to keep the state from spending more money than it takes in but he expects to do it through tight budget controls.

Prompting his remarks was a forecast by the Ohio Chamber of Commerce that next year's deficit would amount to 61 million dollars and might exceed 100 millions.

The forecast envisioned a special session of the Legislature to meet the deficit with new taxes.

Skipton recalled predictions that the last Legislature would have to enact new taxes to keep the state solvent.

"What we did to eliminate the need for new taxes in the 1957 Legislature, I feel we can do in the next session," Skipton observed.

"We have come through this year in the face of a loss of 13 million dollars in sales tax revenues. We are going to do in the next year just as we have this year to get through without new taxes."

Skipton said the state would end this fiscal year June 30 with a "respectable balance."

The finance director expects cuts in some department spending and continued penny pinching to prevent deficits. He apparently is not counting on marked improvement of state revenues immediately although some have shown strength.

Skipton says his policy is not aimed at reducing the number of employes either through dismissals or refusal to replace those who leave of their own volition.

He explains that departments must live within their appropriations and have a little left over if possible. That isn't so easy as it sounds, Skipton admits, but so far officials have been helpful. He expects that policy to continue.

Adams Is Needed as Chief Aide, Eisenhower Asserts

Statement Is Read to Full Press Room

President Declares Assistant 'Invaluable' As Servant of Public

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower said today that Sherman Adams was imprudent in his relations with Bernard Goldfine but "I need him" to continue as top presidential aide.

Eisenhower made it plain at a news conference that he has no intention of firing Adams, although he did not say that in so many words.

In anticipation that the President would talk about the hottest Washington subject of the moment, newsmen were packed into the conference room.

Reads Statement

At the outset, Eisenhower announced he had a statement he wanted to read.

Then, reading from typewritten large cards, Eisenhower said Adams had been imprudent, as Adams himself acknowledged in testimony Tuesday before a House investigating committee.

Despite that imprudence, Eisenhower said, he has reached these personal conclusions:

"1. I believe that the presentation made by Gov. Adams to the congressional committee Tuesday truthfully represents the pertinent facts.

"2. I personally like Gov. Adams.

"3. I admire his abilities.

"4. I respect him because of his personal and official integrity.

"5. I need him."

President Continues

Eisenhower then went on to say:

"Admitting the lack of that careful prudence in this incident that Gov. Adams Tuesday referred to, I believe with my whole heart that he is an invaluable public servant, doing a difficult job efficiently, honestly and tirelessly."

After reading the statement, Eisenhower said he would have nothing more to say regarding the Adams-Goldfine case.

But, as the news conference progressed, he did reply to several question concerned either directly with the matter or with general principles related to it.

On one related matter Eisenhower did decline comment. This was when he was told that some Republicans running for re-election this year say they are going to have difficulty facing the voters on the Adams-Goldfine issue.

The President said he did not care to say anything on that—that he had already made his general statement.

At one point Eisenhower was

U.S.-Filipino Link Is Strong, Congress Told

Joint Session Hears Pledge of Friendship By President Garcia

WASHINGTON (AP) — Philippine President Carlos P. Garcia asked the U.S. Congress today for understanding, encouragement and assistance — not charity — in building Philippine stability.

In an address prepared for a joint session of the Congress he said the island republic has progressed half way toward its objective and cannot turn back.

Speaking in fluent English, the 61-year-old Asian leader said his 23 million countrymen are America's best friends in Asia.

He renewed pledges of Philippine-American solidarity on the basis of equality and common democratic ideals.

"Within the limits of our capabilities," he said, "the Filipino people will assume our just burden in the common defense of freedom and in the common pursuit of peace."

Garcia did not say how much economic assistance the Philippines is seeking but advance indications were that he is hopeful of obtaining 300 million dollars or more in long-term credits.

Garcia said that the Philippines is seeking from the United States the strength to make the country

Trapped in Tons of Steel

Bridge Collapses In Canada, 16 Die

VANCOUVER, B. C. (AP)—Two sections of a nearly finished six-lane bridge collapsed mysteriously Tuesday in a tangled mass of steel, plunging at least 16 workmen to their death.

Two others were missing and 22 injured.

It was 3:42 p.m. on a hot, sunny, windless afternoon when the two end sections of the 16-million-dollar Second Narrows Bridge over Burrard Inlet gave way without warning.

Forty construction workers were on the steel lacework of the pier-supported sections.

Supports Crumble

Suddenly, with a muted rumble, the temporary front supports of the foremost section crumbled and dropped the jutting end of the bridge 200 feet into the tide-churned inlet separating Vancouver and North Vancouver.

The strain jerked forward the concrete pier holding the section behind, and it nosed downward into the water. The two sections, each about 70 feet long, ended their collapse tilted crazily downward like a sagging W with their front part submerged and rear still on the supports.

An eyewitness, Edwin Leitch, said the "frightening roar of the collapse sounded like a continuous peal of thunder lasting about 15 seconds."

A huge crane which had been hoisting steel girders to the top of the bridge toppled and plummeted into the mass of tangled wreckage in the water below.

Crushed in Tangle of Steel

Some workmen were caught and killed in the tortured, twisted beams. Others were crushed beneath tons of steel and concrete after they dropped into the 40-foot-deep inlet.

One survivor, Don Mitchell said after riding the first section down that "everything happened so quickly there was little sensation of fear."

Bill Hallman, who was driving over the old Second Narrows Bridge 200 yards downstream, said, "The air was filled with shouts and cries . . . The men didn't have a chance.

"When they hit the water I could see some grasp for pieces of driftwood. It appeared about half of the men were trapped under water by the bridge sections. Others were swept away by the current."

Cause Not Determined

Cause of the collapse was not known nor was a damage estimate available. Officials of the Dominion Bridge Co., the contractor, launched an immediate investigation. Atty. Gen. Robert Bonner appointed Chief Justice Sherwood Lett of the British Columbia Supreme Court to make an inquiry.

The giant two-mile bridge four miles from downtown Vancouver was more than two thirds finished and was to have been opened for travel in the autumn. Construction work began two years ago.

How long completion of the bridge will be delayed by the disaster probably will not be known for several days.

Senate Okays Labor Control By 88-1 Vote

Kennedy Measure To Face Lukewarm Reception by House

WASHINGTON (AP)—A broad labor control bill on which the Senate spent five long days headed today toward a lukewarm reception in the House.

The Senate passed the measure 88-1 Tuesday night.

House leaders privately gave the bill little chance of passage.

These sources said the House may well pass a union pension and welfare disclosure bill which cleared the Senate in April, but that this would be the extent of action in the labor field this year.

However, Rep. Carl D. Perkins (D-Ky), chairman of the House Labor subcommittee, noted he already is going ahead with hearings on a general bill, and declared, "We are going to proceed diligently."

The Senate wrangled through three 12-hour days and an 11-hour session, and needed another seven hours to complete action on the final day. But members then praised their handiwork.

The lone opposition vote came from Sen. George W. Malone (R-Nev).

Senate Democratic Leader Lyndon B. Johnson (Tex) hailed the measure as "one of the important landmarks of this Congress" and

Not All Accept Explanation

Republicans Split as Ike Decides To Keep Adams

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower's decision to retain Sherman Adams as his top assistant left congressional Republicans divided today on whether Adams has cleared himself of influence charges.

The White House followed up Adams' unprecedented appearance before a House subcommittee Tuesday with an announcement that Eisenhower has no intention of firing his top aide and Adams had no plans to resign.

This indicated that Republicans will have the task of defending the presidential assistant from Democratic attacks in the upcoming political campaign.

Some GOP members indicated that if they do so, it will be with reluctance. Others called outright for Adams' resignation.

Adams told a House subcommittee Tuesday he had exerted no influence on government agencies in behalf of Bernard Goldfine, Boston industrialist, in return for expensive favors he had received from his millionaire friend — including the loan of a $2,400 Oriental rug and the payment of more than $2,000 of hotel bills.

One Republican member of the subcommittee which heard him, Rep. John B. Bennett of Michigan, issued a statement saying Adams "should relinquish his post."

Sen. John J. Williams (R-Del), who said he had read the statement Adams presented to the House group, told the Senate, "Mr. Adams' resignation is in order," and added: "I regret that I cannot accept his explanation as clearing up the implications involved."

Sen. William Langer (R-ND), like Williams a candidate for re-election, said in an interview: "In my judgment, he didn't clear himself. He should resign."

In the opposite corner, Sen. Everett Dirksen of Illinois, the assistant Republican leader, said in a separate interview: "I would see no reason for Gov. Adams to leave the government. There has been no evidence clearly affirming any charge that he used his influence."

More Than Half an Inch Of Rain Measured Here

More than half an inch of rain fell on Marion County Tuesday night, as the temperature hovered around the 56-degree mark. The overnight low followed a day's high of 76.

The .57 of an inch of rain boosts this month's total to 3.99 inches.

Today's forecast calls for fair and cool conditions tonight, with clouds and warmer temperatures together with scattered thunder showers, on tap for Thursday.

The high at noon today was 67 and a brisk wind was breaking up the heavy overcast.

$15,000 Appropriated

Council Approves Fund To Begin Work on Pool

An ordinance appropriating $15,000 from the general fund to the special Lincoln Park Swimming Pool fund was adopted unanimously by Marion City Council Tuesday night in what probably was the shortest meeting in history.

The entire council action from opening of the meeting until adjournment took less than five minutes.

Appropriation of the $15,000 completes action necessary by council prior to the signing of contracts for the renovation of the pool.

Council previously appropriated $5,000 from the general fund to pay the architect's fees and authorized a $45,000 bond issue for the swimming pool project.

Bids for the project were opened Saturday and the low bids totaled $60,912 plus the architect's fees.

Mayor Wendell L. Strong signed the ordinance into law this morning and the next step before construction can begin will be the signing of the contracts by the park board with the general, electrical and plumbing contractors.

The general contractor on the project will be J. W. Weaver of 607 Forest Lawn Dr. who submitted the low bid of $29,368 for pouring new concrete walls inside the old pool and doing other work called for in the plans and specifications prepared by Edwards and Burris, the architects.

Contract for the plumbing work will go to J. F. Dible of Carey on a low bid of $27,797 and the electrical contract will go to the Triple Service Co. of 140 W. Pleasant St. on a low bid of $3,747.

The architects said this morning that Mr. Weaver informed them he hopes to begin work on the project this week and will complete it in about 60 days. This will mean the pool may be completed and ready for use about the middle of August.

Contracts are expected to be signed in a day or two. They first must be approved by the city solicitor and then will be given to the park board for signing.

FHA Loans Unavailable For Unsewered Houses

The Federal Housing Administration is standing pat on its ruling that FHA loans cannot be granted for suburban homes near Marion that have a septic tank sewage disposal system.

Confirmation of the ruling is contained in a letter that was sent from Norman P. Mason, FHA commissioner, to Ohio Sen. Frank J. Lausche.

In it, Mr. Mason told the senator that Forrest P. Smith, director of the FHA office at Columbus, made a special trip to Marion sometime between April 29 and May 28 to investigate sewerage conditions here.

AFTER THE investigation, Mr. Smith and the chief engineer of the Ohio Department of Health concurred that ". . . a concentration of septic tanks in Marion County is not acceptable," according to Mr. Mason's report to Sen. Lausche.

Their investigation disclosed that there is a community sewerage system northeast of the city capable of handling 300 to 500 homes and that there is 400-500 acres of undeveloped land in that area that may be sewered in the future. Another area southeast of the city is not sewered but city and county officials and private enterprise are taking steps to correct the condition, Mr. Mason informed the senator.

"The seriousness of the individual sewage disposal problem is emphasized by the great number of law suits in the Marion Courts between neighbors alleging that poor septic tank system operation has created a nuisance or caused injury to the adjoining property owners," Mr. Mason wrote to the senator.

"In view of the adverse conditions . . . , I am sure you will agree that we would not be adequately protecting the home owners' interests if we encourage the use of septic tank systems in Marion," Mr. Mason wrote.

"It appears that the city and county authorities as well as private enterprise are now taking steps to provide sanitary sewers for the area and you can be sure the FHA will assist in every way it can to get this problem satisfactorily resolved," Mr. Mason concluded.

THE LETTER WAS in the nature of a report from Mr. Mason to Sen. Lausche. Apparently Sen. Lausche asked for the report after Lowell Douce wrote to him on April 29 on behalf of the Marion Real Estate Board.

Mr. Douce said that he wrote asking Sen. Lausche, Sen. John Bricker and Rep. Jackson Betts for clarification of the FHA ruling banning loans for septic tank homes in Marion County.

After receiving the copy of Mr. Mason's letter from Sen. Lasuche, Mr. Douce sent a photo copy to Mayor Wendell L. Strong and Council President Fred Baldauf. Mr. Baldauf noted that he had received the copy at the June 9 council meeting but said the copy was blurred and unreadable.

Mayor Strong received a clear copy of the letter from the real estate board Monday.

Mr. Douce said that without FHA financing, local home and property sales are seriously curtailed. This curtails other activities in the county such as location of new plants and businesses here, he said.

He said that as a result of the ban by the FHA on septic tank systems, suburban sewers are badly needed in Marion County to help encourage home sales and improve the Marion economy.

Youth Activities

BOY SCOUTS

Members of Boy Scout Troop 3 sponsored by Epworth Methodist Church, spent last weekend on a camping adventure in the Hocking Hills of southern Ohio. In the group were 40 Scouts, leaders and fathers.

Camping at Old Man's Cave, the Scouts explored Conkle's Hollow and the Rock House State Parks. Saturday night they took a night hike through the forests for a training adventure. A huge campfire was the scene of an Indian Council pow wow presented by the "Order of the Arrow." History of the Indians in relation to the order of the arrow was presented by Bob Rhoads and authentic Indian dances were presented and explained by Bob Rhoads, Jimmie Gast, Tom Quaintance, Dick Mitton and Lester McMurray. Other Scouts and visitors camping in the area were invited to join the group for the program.

Early Sunday morning, a church service was held in Old Man's Cave with Ray Schwab, chaplain of the troop, as leader. Bob Besst is scoutmaster and Don Reynolds is assistant scoutmaster.

Council Considers Bucyrus Parking, Traffic Proposals

BUCYRUS — Several changes in traffic and parking regulations were recommended to city council at its meeting here Tuesday night by Mayor Joe Sullivan, representing the municipal traffic commission.

The commission recommended no parking on the west side of Kaler Ave. from Charles St. to Martin Ave. and on the east side of Rogers St. from Hopley Ave. to Lucas St., installation of four-way stop signs at S. Spring and W. Rensselaer St. and with resumption of two-way traffic on S. Walnut St. between Shell and Beal avenues.

Safety - Service Director C. C. Richard urged the installation of a traffic light at Plymouth St. and N. Sandusky Ave. and the proposal was referred to the traffic commission.

A lengthy discussion over the closing of Willard St. from Bland Ave. to Irving St., with numerous residents of the area participating, finally was ended after Platting Committee Chairman Myron Stinehelfer said his committee would withhold a report on the closing until further study of legal aspects. He indicated a report would be presented at council's July 1 meeting.

Parking meter revenue during May amounted to $2,486. Mayor Sullivan reported that fines and costs collected by his office last month totaled $1,558, including $1,005 from state highway patrol cases. Of this amount, $1,056 was returned to the city treasury.

A request from the mayor that $30,000 of the $43,000 now held in the old Municipal Hospital fund be transferred to the general fund was referred to the finance committee. The hospital now is operated by Bucyrus Community Hospital, Inc., a non-profit group of citizens.

Swedish Engineer Speaks to Kiwanis

GALION — At a luncheon-meeting Tuesday noon in Hotel Talbott, Kiwanis Club members about telephone communications in Europe as compared with those in the United States. The talk was given by Folke Ek of Stockholm, Sweden, an engineer associated with the Ericsson Co. of Sweden and the North Electric Co. of Galion.

He said that 84 per cent of the telephones in Europe are government controlled, and only 16 per cent are privately owned. On Ohio, 40 out of every 100 residents have telephones.

North Electric Awarded Huge Army Contract

GALION — The North Electric Co. has been awarded a government contract in the amount of $4,631,000 for telegraph equipment, according to William Tucker, chairman of the firm's board of directors.

The contract was issued by the U.S. Army Signal Supply Agency of Philadelphia.

Mr. Tucker reports that approximately 94 per cent of the job order will be allocated to the North Electric's Kenton plant, with work to start within the next 90 days.

This is the second such contract. The company was awarded one for $4,136,000 some weeks ago by the Chicago agency of the Army supply corps. Allocation of that work is yet to be made, Mr. Tucker noted. Work on it is slated to begin in late January of 1959.

Both contracts were for telegraph and communications equipment.

Construction Co. To Repair Streets For Water Firm

A contract for the repair of openings made in city streets for work on water lines was signed today by the Marion Water Co. and the Gage Construction Co.

L. Otis Porter, manager of the Water Co., said that with the signing of the contract the Gage Co. will take over the repair of all normal size openings made in city streets by water company crews.

Large openings made necessary by work on large water mains still will be repaired on a bid basis, Mr. Porter said.

Employment of the construction company, the same one employed by the Ohio Fuel Gas Co. to repair openings it makes in the streets, will assure quicker repairs to street pavements, Mr. Porter reported.

He added that as of today there are no water company openings in city streets that are more than 10 days old and these will be repaired as quickly as possible by the construction company under the terms of the new contract.

TCP adds Anti-Miss to anti-knock

Save gasoline! Get back up to 30 horsepower lost by spark plug "miss." It takes only 2 to 3 tankfuls of Super Shell with TCP.

You may have sensed a loss of power in your car and not been able to pinpoint the cause.

Chances are that spark plug "miss" is causing the trouble. It is today's major cause of power loss!

To stop spark plug "miss," Shell developed TCP* additive. TCP adds anti-miss to anti-knock.

Thus you get 2 great benefits from Super Shell with TCP...

Anti-knock. Shell, largest supplier of commercial aviation fuels in the U.S.A., has packed Super Shell with aromatics as used in aviation fuel. These give Super Shell its higher octane to prevent knock. But in today's engines anti-knock alone is not enough.

Anti-Miss. Shell first developed TCP to stop spark plug misfiring in military aircraft. Today, in high-compression automobile engines, too, TCP neutralizes harmful deposits that make spark plugs misfire... brings back 20 to 30 horsepower and gives better mileage too.

See your Shell Dealer for Super Shell with TCP.

One of these Trucks Works for Your Family 58 Days a Year!

Today, America's streets and highways are travelled by well over 10 million motor trucks. Directly or indirectly, one of them is working full time for you and your family more than one day out of each week!

Everything we use in the home, on the farm, in the shop, travels at least part of the way along this truck supply line. Keeping these trucks running on schedule and at top efficiency is essential to our economic life and security.

Many products of Eaton research, development, and manufacture are keeping trucks on the road and out of the shop. For example, Eaton has developed truck engine valves which commonly run more than 100,000 miles without attention. Other Eaton engine parts, such as tappets, hydraulic valve lifters, seat inserts, and valve springs are contributing to improved truck dependability and reduced maintenance costs. A substantial percentage of American-built motor trucks ride on Eaton chassis springs.

Eaton 2-Speed Axles provide a versatile combination of speed and pulling power that enables trucks to haul full loads on or off the highway, and maintain the exacting schedules demanded by our modern system of supply.

Eaton divisions and subsidiaries listed at the right are working in close cooperation with truck and engine manufacturers in their constant effort to produce vehicles that will keep America's supply line operating continuously and economically. We would like to tell you more about our company, its plants, and its products. Write for our booklet.

Living and Dying by the Sickle

It is always a shock to be reminded that old Communists never die, they just get executed. The execution of Imre Nagy, who had the misfortune to be a Communist premier of Hungary when Hungarians were restless under the Communist hammer and sickle, has proved what needed no proving.

Men and women in this century who make the fateful decision to live by the sickle can count on dying by it, if they live long enough. Nagy and the three co-conspirators who were executed by their fellow Communists have no claim on non-Communist sympathy.

There may have been some excuse in the early days of the Communist conspiracy for ignorance about its ways. But there is no excuse now for any Communist to believe he is involved in anything more humanitarian than what Communisn has been made by its disciples.

Under Communism, no individual has any rights that cannot be set aside by the collective decisions made in the name of the party dictatorship. Under Communism, there are no relative values, no shaded decisions, no gradations of white and black. Everything is absolute.

This is the meaning of authoritarian rule. It is the thing that disenchants fellow travelers, like the dissatisfied Americans who thought going along with the Communist party was like going along on a clambake.

Even Stalin, the most ruthless of all, finally became the victim of his own ruthlessness — and Khrushchev's time may not be far distant.

A Tito may go along indefinitely, being a Communist on his own terms. A Gomulka, or a Nagy may get away with a show of independence for a time. But eventually they must die by the absolutism they lived by—and without mercy.

Before the bleeding hearts in this country get worked up over the execution of Nagy and his Communist companions, they need to explain what Nagy and his companions, all Communists, themselves, thought they had a right to expect at the hands of their comrades.

Some Men Are Not for Sale

The easiest thing for the press and public to do is tear Sherman Adams to pieces because he admits he accepted substantial gifts from an old friend who had dealings with the federal government after Mr. Adams became President Eisenhower's right-hand man.

From the viewpoint of those eager to believe the worst about Mr. Adams, the gifts he was given by Bernard Goldfine were substantial enough to have constituted a bribe to win special favor.

These same people do not say they actually were a bribe and it has not even been said that Mr. Goldfine received any special favors. But people who have estimated how much it would take to bribe them find it easy to believe Mr. Adams could have been bribed for about the same amount; namely, a few weekends in a hotel and maybe a new overcoat made of the wool from an animal that lives in the Andes.

This is not meant to justify the acceptance of substantial gifts by officials high in the federal government. It is a dangerous, shortsighted and possibly a suicidal political practice, as Mr. Adams would be willing to concede at this point. It makes the person who does it a sitting duck for the mink-coat-deep-freeze scandal that ruined Harry Truman as a candidate for renomination in 1952.

But it is possible for a public official to retain his honesty in the face of temptations that would undermine other men in high positions. Not all men are for sale cheap, and some men are not for sale at all.

We doubt if Mr. Adams could be bought at any price. He did not win a reputation for honesty in public life by merely talking about it; he has practiced it.

Easy as it would be to go along with the crowd and tear him to pieces, thereby satisfying all the people whose real aim is to destroy popular respect for President Eisenhower in time for the congressional elections, it is not easy to condemn a decent and hard-working federal official out of hand.

It has become old-fashioned to say so, but when a man has spent his lifetime building a reputation, his fellow men should not be willing to chuck it because a pack of character assassins have taken it into their heads to stage a political lynching party.

We do not believe Sherman Adams could be bought for a couple of paid-in-full hotel tabs and a few personal and house furnishings.

Preliminary Skirmish on Labor Reform

Except for the kind of changes made in all bills that are cleared for floor discussion, the union leaders and the senators who have been consulting with them will get the labor reform bill they agreed on while it was still in committee.

It will not matter what kind of a bill it turns out to be, as far as the second session of the 85th Congress is concerned. There will not be time for the House of Representatives to put a bill into shape for a compromise agreement with the Senate before Congress adjourns.

This is only the preliminary skirmish on labor reform, not the real legislative battle. That will come, perhaps, in the 86th Congress that will be elected next November. It might even have to wait until the 87th Congress.

What is happening now is the feeling-out of public sentiment as congressmen try to learn where their constituents want them to stand. That is the strategy behind the proposed amendments to the bill pending in the Senate. They have been offered by Republicans with the backing of a few conservative Democrats to create a token opposition to the leadership of Sen. Kennedy of Massachusetts and Sen. Ives of New York, the bipartisan team in charge of the bill.

They are testing out the probability that popular reaction from the continued assertion of big unionism's power will continue to create favor for strong reform measures, in the same way that popular reaction from big business power created antitrust laws at the turn of the century.

They are testing, too, the likelihood that in Congress there now may be more votes attracted to critics of high-handed practices by unionists than to representatives and senators who must defend unionists because they have no other political backers.

The country is witnessing the evolution of big unionism as a political issue. It is watching politicians try out the strength of the popular division that the issue will crystalize —the issue between those who want to protect unionism at any cost and those who are indignant because the first reform proposal to reach Congress has been virtually written by the people who are supposed to be reformed.

It has been made certain by the preliminary skirmish that labor reform will be discussed in the 1958 congressional elections and will be a major issue in the presidential campaign two years from now.

Outstanding Show

The Marion Flower Show last Saturday and Sunday was proclaimed an outstanding success after attracting more than 1,000 people from a wide area.

Everyone who had a role in planning and staging the show is to be congratulated for maintaining the high standard which has been set by this event.

Interest in the growing, arranging and displaying of flowers seems steadily on the increase, at least in this section of the country.

With the talent for organization and the industriousness which mark so many of its community activities, Marion has one of the finest garden club groups in the state.

The products of the many hours of work by local flower enthusiasts go on general public display only in this show, which in its excellence is a fitting tribute to those who make it possible.

The Once Over

By H. I. Phillips

Mortimer Topblower, our expert on such matters, has tried out those New York subway trains with the apple blossom scent, and reported against the idea. Mr. Topblower has been a subway traveler, boy and man, all his life and wants the foul air to which he has become hardened and accustomed.

The sudden switch to apple blossoms could kill millions of subway riders, he declares. "I demand my subway atmosphere straight. If I want apples I will go to the fruit store," he says. "That also goes for peaches, bananas, persimmons and wild cherries."

APPLE BLOSSOM scent is being given to subway cars through a ceramic disk letting a flow of concentrated blossom essence. But no apple blossom can win out against the tainted air of the subway, insists Mr. Topblower. "It is cruelty to apple blossoms to ask such a thing," he says. "Take the subway and take the long established system of ventilation; they're bigger than both of us. I refer to me and to apple blossoms in general," he argues.

"NATIVE NEW YORKERS will never accept the perfumed subway," he continues. "They have grown up in the traditional odors of halitosis, old socks, curious hair oils, wet newspapers, hot brakes, codfish, cheap perfumes and the strange scent of circus camels that they regard them as normal.

They are used to them. The sudden suspicion of a trainful of folks that they are in an apple orchard instead of on the usual route to the office or factory can cause a panic."

MR. TOPBLOWER, striking a Patrick Henry attitude declared, "I have been a faithful subway rider for 40 years. Give me it in the accepted form or give me death. But don't fool around me with apple blossoms!"

Our pet envy for 1958 is Meredith Willson who went home to Mason City recently and was given a reception and parade in which he was allowed to act as leader of a band with 76 trombones and 110 cornets.

This was a boyhood dream come true. Willson's memories of Mason City and the love of band music led to fame and fortune in his fifties, through the hit musical "The Music Man" in which "76 Trombones" was a top musical number. He had enjoyed modest successes in entertainment for years but his musical took the jackpot. Odd fact was that several producers read the book and thought it too corny. But it was precisely the corn and the small town flavor that delighted hard-boiled Broadway critics. This was buttered corn, the sweet corn of the old home and it went over big.

Congress' Big Test

By David Lawrence

Since the Democratic party controls both houses of Congress, the American people will be asked to hold it responsible in the November elections for acts of omission as well as commission.

Lawrence

It looks now as if the biggest single challenge flung at Congress will be ignored. For the Democratic policy committee of the Senate has declined thus far to permit a vote to be taken on a bill that would help the country fight the Communist conspiracy. The same old charge made in 1952 that the Democratic party is "soft on Communism" will be heard again during the coming campaign. Likewise, it will be said that the Democratic party has turned a deaf ear to the mothers and fathers who want to see confessed rapists kept in jail instead of being allowed to roam around free to repeat their offenses.

The New York Daily News, which has the largest circulation of any daily newspaper in the United States, has just published a criticism with which many members of Congress in both parties here privately agreed but which they have not ventured to act on by passing remedial legislation. The News editorial says in part:

"It begins to look as if Congress—the current 85th Congress, that is, which expires at the year's end—has decided to put up no further fight against the Earl Warren Supreme Court's numerous kindnesses to Communists, attacks on the powers of congressional investigating committees and invasions of states' rights and the crime-combatting powers of police.

"THE BUTLER-JENNER bill. . . was approved weeks ago by the Senate Judiciary Committee—meaning it is eligible for debate and vote in the full Senate at any time. Yet the Senate's Democratic policy committee in its wisdom has kept the bill from being called up for action on the plea that more important legislation is before Congress and a long Butler-Jenner debate would only gum things up. Unless the bill is called up by mid-June, which is right now, the chance that it will be discussed at this session of Congress is slim."

The News charges that the Democratic policy committee "has been guilty of an unpatriotic sidestepping of its duty, because the future of the nation is endangered by the things the Warren court has been doing to U.S. rights and practices."

Among the recent decisions of the Supreme Court that have come in for severe condemnation by lawyers throughout the country are rulings that anti-sedition laws passed by 42 states cannot be applied to subversion unless Congress says so, and that persons who are Communists are eligible to practice law in any state, despite the laws of the states which forbid this.

The Supreme Court has released dozens of Communists on technical points and, as the New York Daily News says, the net result of the long string of court decisions is that, "it is harder than ever before for the government to combat the Red conspiracy to overthrow that same government and make slaves of all Americans except Reds."

THE EDITORIAL goes on to say that, by releasing a confessed rapist because the police held him for seven hours' conversation with them prior to his formal arraignment before a magistrate, the Supreme Court has confused police and prosecutors all over the country and has "enabled gangsters and other hardened criminals to thumb their noses frequently at the law."

What can be done about it? The Congress has before it the bill sponsored by Sen. Butler (R-Md) and Sen. Jenner (R-Ind).

Provisions of this measure would, if enacted, strengthen the Smith Act so as to prevent members of Communist organizations from preaching treason and taking steps to overthrow our government.

The proposed law would keep the Supreme Court from telling the states whom they might admit to the bar and would give legal sanction to the rights of the states to deal with sedition and subversion.

Finally, Congress, as a co-ordinate branch of the government, would, through the proposed legislation, exercise its right to decide what is or is not relevant to its own investigations and inquiries, which are designed to get information for guidance in writing future laws.

It is not a question of impairing the powers of the court as an institution but of asserting the rights of Congress as granted by the Constitution itself.

The big issue is whether the 85th Congress will surrender its rights. It has a chance yet to be known in history not as a craven Congress but as a courageous Congress.

Duncemanship

By Truman Twill

As was to have been expected, the papa of young Gen. Trujillo Jr. was fit to be tied when his offspring was not given a journeyman tactician's certificate by the U.S. General Staff College at Ft. Leavenworth, Kan.

Papa, a generalissimo and dictator of the Dominican Republic, says the implied rebuke to his son makes a mockery of the "good neighbor" policy and proves that J. F. Dulles has been so busy with Europe he neglected Latin America.

Nothing is said about the fact Junior Trujillo did not finish the course, having become preoccupied with co-eds in Hollywood. There are no co-eds, of course, at Ft. Leavenworth. But nothing ever is said about the reasons junior hopefuls goof up in school.

It is always an unfriendly act when it happens, and diplomatic relations are strained.

What makes it tough is the peculiar psychology involved in the dreary deal. Parents are never sore because their offspring stalled on the academic hill; that is not what galls them.

They are sore because the fact was made known. Their pride is hurt. They are not surprised because Junior failed; they have no illusions about his ability. They are shocked because his failure was revealed.

This is why it will become increasingly important to get on with this column's suggestion about an all-purpose identification card that each of us will carry on his person one of these days. It will be made of indestructible plastic and coded with holes to tell all when inserted in a decording machine.

Part of the information it will bear will be what happened at the end of all formal school when the bearer of the card submitted himself to a final examination. This will supplant all semester and year-end exams and will be a mental index.

Everybody will sail through school, because the only thing that will count will be that one final examination. And its outcome will be kept confidential, subject to disclosure only by the decoding machine, along with other information of a private nature.

To all intents and purposes, a junior general from the Dominican Republic who prefers Hollywood to Ft. Leavenworth and concentrates on Extemporaneous Fun instead of Logistics III will be as much of a military expert as the grinds who attended all the classes.

There will have been no disclosures of inadequacy. Neither will there have been any apple-polished grades, or overnight miracles of cramming. The holes in the card will reveal what was found out by scientifically objective tests at the end of the entire scholastic experience—but only to those who learn the results of the decoding process.

Parental indignation over duncemanship in school will cease.

It is never the duncemanship that makes the trouble. It's the word that so-and-so's kid drew a blank.

Case of Special Treatment

By James Marlow

WASHINGTON

Bernard Goldfine, millionaire friend of Sherman Adams, got special treatment which, under the law, no citizen is entitled to. That's the main point disclosed so far in the Adams-Goldfine case.

The White House—through presidential press secretary James Hagerty—said June 13 the real issue is whether the wealthy businessman got preferential treatment from a government agency as a result of his friendship with Adams.

There is no evidence that any agency ruled in favor of Goldfine because he was Adams' friend, but there is evidence he got confidential government information he could not have hoped to get without Adams' help.

THE GOLDFINE and Adams families have been friends for years, at quite some expense to Goldfine. He paid more than $2,000 hotel bills for Adams, gave him a vicuna coat cloth worth $69, and lent him a very expensive Oriental rug.

Goldfine, a textile manufacturer, got into trouble with the Federal Trade Commission for alleged mislabeling of his product. He went to see Adams, President Eisenhower's No. 1 assistant.

Adams—in a letter to a House subcommittee investigating government agencies—said on June 12 that Goldfine came to him in 1953 with a letter from the Federal Trade Commission and asked what prompted it.

(Why Goldfine, if he didn't want special treatment, didn't go directly to the FTC and ask that question hasn't been revealed yet because he has not been called before the committee to testify. He will be.)

Adams said he called FTC Chairman Edward F. Howrey and asked if the information Goldfine wanted could be made available. Then Adams in his letter said Howrey sent him a memorandum which he turned over to Goldfine.

But when Adams himself went before the committee Tuesday, this is what the committee counsel, Robert Lishman, told him:

Howrey, in his memorandum to Adams, revealed the name of the company which had filed a complaint with the FTC against Goldfine. Lishman said disclosing such information was a double violation of:

1. The FTC's rules which require that the names of complainants in a case be kept confidential.

2. Federal law which prohibits revealing information in the FTC's files not already public.

SINCE BOTH an FTC rule and federal law were roadblocks to giving such information to a private individual—particularly a defendant in a case, like Goldfine—it seems certain he couldn't have gotten the information from the FTC himself.

Adams said he was unaware of both the rule and the law when he passed on Howrey's memorandum to Goldfine.

He said that if he committed errors they were perhaps the result of "inexperience." Adams, in politics since 1941, because of his job with Eisenhower is one of the most important men in the government.

Captain of Industry

By Hal Boyle

NEW YORK

Would you like to be a captain of industry?

The idea of serving as president of a giant business firm—a firm with only five employes is a giant if the town it serves is small enough — appeals to many.

HAL BOYLE

They see themselves as a glamorous big wheel surrounded by many small cogs desperately anxious to please. They see the executive life as one of endless power, plenty, prestige and leisure.

Perhaps it actually was that way in the old days when a boss didn't rate as a tycoon until after he had bought his second yacht.

But today: Ah, no. Many a modern magnate has found that achievement of the great American dream—to run a big business —has many nightmare aspects.

LET US TAKE a typical mythical example—Mr. Alonzo Q. Quagmire, president of the Acme Tiddlywinks Co.

In an off-the-cuff interview, President Quagmire gives this picture of the private life of a captain of industry:

Q. Mr. Quagmire, do you feel any pressures in your post from stockholders, labor or government?

A. I did until I went numb.

Q. What do you think's the best thing an executive can do when he feels government is sticking its nose into his business.

A. Write 'em a hot letter on plain stationery — and forget to sign it. If you mail the letter, leave off the stamp.

Q. Are you afraid of your workers?

A. Last year yes; this year no.

Q. Are your workers afraid of you?

A. Not as afraid as I am of the stockholders.

Q. Mr. Quagimire, what are a few of your secret woes?

A. Well, if I get to work too early, they say I'm worried about my job, and if I get to work too late they think I've got a hangover.

AND IF I GET an ulcer, they say the job's getting me down. But if I don't get an ulcer they say I'm spending too much time on the golf course.

And if I don't hire five new vice presidents, they say I don't know how to delegate authority. But if I do hire five more vice presidents I know I'll have to spend most of my time watching them.

Q. Do you tell your employes funny jokes to keep up their morale?

A. Yes, but I figure the ones that laugh have a sense of loyalty —and it's the ones who don't laugh who have a sense of humor. I never could tell a joke well.

Q. What is the worst thing about being a boss?

A. You're so lonely. There's no one you can talk to. You can't even discuss the weather.

Q. Why?

A. Well, if you glance out the window and say to an employe, "Gee, it looks gloomy"—well, five minutes later a rumor is going through the plant that the firm's on the skids.

Q. What do you think is your greatest reward in your post?

A. I get a free parking space in front of my office.

News of Other Years

40 YEARS AGO—While the Austrians drove against the Italians along the Piave River on the southwestern front, the Germans launched a powerful assault in a desperate effort to storm the shell-wrecked city of Rheims in France. Despite a three-hour heavy cannonade from the Germans, the French maintained the city and hurled the enemy back.

A 50 per cent reduction in bread rations in Austria indicated that the food situation in that country was becoming extremely serious.

Word was received of the death of Jeremiah Wood, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Wood of near Agosta, who was killed in action in France. He had been a member of the U.S. Marine Corps seven years.

20 YEARS AGO — In a simple single-ring ceremony, John Roosevelt and Anne Lindsay Clark were married at noon in an ancient church by the sea at Nahant, Mass.

Larry S. MacPhail, general manager of the Brooklyn Dodgers, announced that Babe Ruth would return to baseball to coach the Dodgers.

Charles H. Allen, 77, former Paulding, O., bank president and great-grandson of Eber Baker, founder of Marion, died at his home on S. State St.

10 YEARS AGO — Three noted Hollywood personalities were among 43 persons killed in the crash of a United Airline DC6 near Mount Carmel, Pa. They were Earl Carroll, theatrical producer; Beryl Wallace, singer, and Mrs. Venita Oakie, divorced wife of Jack Oakie, screen actor.

The House passed a delayed-action draft bill which would not draft anyone before February of 1949.

President Truman stopped in Columbus long enough to renew his attack on the 80th Congress. He was on his way back to Washington where he hinted at more vetoes.

Marion's first 1948 polio case was reported at the office of a local physician.

Seven-Week Building Trades Strike Is Settled in Cleveland

CLEVELAND (AP) — The longest work stoppage in the history of the Cleveland area building industry has ended after seven weeks.

A precedent-setting three - year contract providing a 37-cent hourly pay boost broke a deadlock that had idled more than 30,000 workers since May 1.

The pay hike is spaced to increase hourly rates nine cents when the men go back to work, six cents more Jan. 1, an additional 10 cents next May 1 and 12 cents in May 1, 1960.

When the final increase is effective, the rates for the major trades — carpenters, cement masons, engineers, glaziers, ironworkers, lathers, plasterers, plumbers, roofers, sheet metal wokers and steamfitters—will be $4.11.

All these crafts are now $3.74, and the others range from $3 for laborers to $3.81½ for bricklayers.

The unions agreed to help employers cut costs by eliminating wasteful practices and increasing productivity. The settlement reached Tuesday night in the office of Cleveland Mayor Anthony J. Celebrezze, who mediated the dispute, provided for:

An eight-hour work day in all trades. Many crafts had a practice of quitting early.

Elimination of coffee breaks.

Except where present contracts provide, no payment of show-up time when weather conditions prevent actual work.

Removal of limitations on the amount of work a man shall perform in any period of employment.

No restriction on use of machinery, tools and other labor-saving devices.

Payment of wages by check instead of in cash wherever possible.

The Building Trades Council, bargaining jointly for the craft unions, had been demanding a 45-cent package — 15 cents an hour more in each of three years. Saturday the BTC turned down a 30-cent proposal—10 cents in each of three years—by Mayor Celebrezze.

MR. AND MRS. Earl Fleming of 190 Leader St. are announcing the engagement of their daughter, Shirley Ann, to George F. Cerny Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. George F. Cerny Sr. of 160 Jefferson St.

Miss Fleming is employed by Universal Invention Sales in Marion and her fiance is employed with the McDaniel Motor Co.

Japanese buffet suppers honoring visiting television personalities at the Marion Flower Show were given Saturday and Sunday evenings following the flower show sessions at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Zachman of 244 S. State St. Host and hostesses were Mrs. Irma C. Waters, chairman of the flower show, and Mr. and Mrs. Zachman.

Honored guests were Tom and Pat Gleba, who present the "Tom Gleba Show," and Jeanne Shea, who also has a show, both over Station WBNS-TV in Columbus. They made personal appearances at the two-day flower show which was visited by over 1,000 persons.

Guests were entertained in an oriental setting with a background of Japanese music. Flower arrangements followed the flower show them, "June Melodies." On arrival, guests were served an occidental punch and were seated on Japanese cushions, called Zabutons, around a large, low, round table. Chop sticks were used by the guests for the various courses of Japanese delicacies, beginning with a variety of hors d'oeuvres, many of which were imported from Japan.

Another Japanese dish, Sukiyaki, cooked Japanese style on the tables where the guests were seated, also was served and dessert was Japanese cakes prepared by Mrs. Zachman.

Guests for the weekend buffet dinner parties included officers of the flower show and special participants. In addition to the honored guests they were Jeanne Shea's daughter, Susan, Karen Pendleton and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Pepper of Columbus, Carl Papai, director of WBNS-TV, and Mrs. Papai, Mr. and Mrs. Robert White, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph White, Howard Guthery, Miss Madge Cooper, Mr. and Mrs. Karl Holly, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Kilbury, Mr. and Mrs. Harley Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. Odell Thompson and son, Lewis, Mrs. J. By ROD SERLING

Murder Story

John Crosby is in Europe. He will resume writing his column next week. His guest columnist today is triple "Emmy"-winning playwright Rod Serling, who bids for more honors Thursday with "A Town Has Turned to Dust" for "Playhouse 90."

They haven't put the body in the grave yet because it's still twitching. Rigor mortis probably won't set in until the fall of '58, but it seems obvious that any sound heard over the summer will be a death rattle, any movement, purely reflexive.

Live television drama has kicked the cathode and what follows isn't an epitaph—it's simply an autopsy report. Live drama was bumped off! It was homicide and not totally justifiable. It is also fairly evident that the killing was collaborative. A lot of people were involved.

Economics heads the list. This is the big heavy of the times. It pyramided from seasonal layoffs into a full-fledged recession and brought with it the usual subsidiary—fear.

-:-

WHEN YOU START eliminating jobs, you eliminate products and then you start retrenching on advertising.

A live drama was an expensive proposition. Case in Point—The Chrysler Corp. As big and important as it is, it couldn't afford a weekly hour dramatic show ("Climax").

Recession wasn't the sole culprit. But it was one of the big nails in the coffin.

A big, formless entity known as Madison Avenue is second in the lineup. These are the ad agencies. They've done a classic sell job on the American public over the last two decades, making them yearn for chrome, cathartics and breakfast cereals.

In matters of the public's commercial taste, they have been the judges, formulators and the big brother, proving themselves graduate psychologists right down the whole line of huckstering from billboards to subliminal perception!

But live television lies in a tomb partly through their efforts.

THEY FORGOT that TV drama was in itself an art form and not just a display case. They tried to peddle a peculiar form of theater that could ride piggy back on a commercial—paying only lip service to the one basic demand of any drama in any media—honesty.

Instead of being translators for the creative people at the other end, they were at best their apologists. Out of all this came live drama that was stainless, antiseptically clean, rigidly nonpartisan and totally noncontroversial. For the most part it was not really drama.

No. 3 in the lineup is a hood called "Ratings." Ambivalently enough, this is a comic character—an India rubber man who can tie himself in knots and then come out pointing in four different directions. He can be all things to all networks and he would be ludicrous if it weren't for the tremendous power he wields.

In his name, many a program has bitten the dust simply because on a given night 12 people answered their phones and said they were playing canasta instead of watching TV. There were probably 3,000 others who could have answered differently but they weren't phoned. Hooper, ARB and Nielsen come up with such diverse findings, it is to be wondered whether their approach is not based so much on science as it is a ouija board.

THE FOURTH culprit—a cowboy, probably the least offensive of the lineup.

When he first galloped onto the picture tube, he found immediate acceptance at the expense of the live hombres who got shunted to the big range yonder because there wasn't enough room, it appears, for both Shetlands and Chayefsky.

Some critics were honestly analytical and justifiably critical. Others were specious carpers who demanded nothing less than Shakespeare in dialog and Lunt and Fontaine in performances. They forgot TV had to grind out drama on a weekly assembly line and consistent quality could not be the rule.

Too often TV didn't want its drama good, it wanted it on Thursday. They screamed bloodly murder at mediocrity but seemed to forget this was the medium which also produced "Marty," "Little Moon of Alban" and "All the King's Men."

These gentlemen are principal mourners now. This casket isn't going to its grave under its own power—a lot of people are behind it pushing.

And the last culprit—live drama itself, dying of wounds partly self-inflicted.

Perhaps it lost impetus over the years and didn't entertain properly. It may have forced audiences into the sound booth or the bunk house because its diet wasn't palatable or varied enough.

Perhaps there weren't enough "Martys" to maintain audience acceptance, or the drama was too introspective, intense and intimate at all times.

The next seasons will tell. We'll see if the public is satisfied with the alternatives. Maybe by September '59 we can look on the marker of the grave and it may read "Rest in Peace," indicating a passing fad like flagpole sitting.

Or maybe it will be sorely missed—a valuable adjunct to the American scene.

If this is the case, the marker will read, "Come Back and See Us."

Humorous Address on Hotel Business Heard by Rotarians

Human nature as observed daily in the hotel business was the subject of a humorous talk by Captain H. Mowery of Columbus at the weekly meeting of Marion Rotary Club Tuesday noon at Hotel Harding.

Mr. Mowery, executive secretary of the Ohio Hotels Association, is a former president of the American Hotel Trade Association Executives. He was managing editor of the Ohio State Journal in Columbus before entering the hotel field.

Customer Always Right

The speaker pointed out that Ellsworth Statler, founder of the Statler hotel organization, was author of the statement that "the customer is always right" and that it is an excellent motto, but sometimes difficult to follow.

Mr. Mowery said his duties are divided into two general categories — legislative and the department of research. The legislative assignment involves lobbying activity on behalf of Ohio hotels at both the state and national level.

The research responsibility covers a wide area of investigation, ranging from tests to discover how high in the air flies can be found (to determine how many floors of a new hotel require screens) to probing losses by forgery and "souvenir collectors."

Hotel patrons who pay their bills with fraudulent checks will cost Ohio hotels approximately $200,000 this year, he said.

"Souvenir collectors" are hotel guests who collect "anything that is loose in the rooms, and some things that aren't."

He mentioned cases where hotels have lost fans, good-sized lamps and even mattresses. One wedding party that had engaged a private dining room removed the silver service, china, linens and even the drapes at the windows.

The biggest instance of "collection" in Ohio hotel history occurred at the Statler Hotel in Cleveland, he said, when the lobby carpeting was taken by men who posed as representatives of a cleaning establishment.

Mr. Mowery praised Leon Bomas, long-time Harding Hotel chef who has just retired.

The speaker was introduced by Wilson Tway, program chairman for June.

Guests were presented by E. Stewart Norris.

Two visiting Rotarians were among the six guests at the meeting. They were: Ed Subbs of Maywood, Ill., and Carl Albrecht of Greenville. Other guests were: Sam McChesney of Cleveland, and Cadet P. A. Sykes, Bernard Peterson and S. W. Hamper, all of Marion.

Defense Chief Raps House Version of Reorganization Plan

Views Aired By McElroy At Hearings

Restriction of Power Contained in Bill Is Rapped by Secretary

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of Defense McElroy, urging adoption of President Eisenhower's defense reorganization plan, says some provisions of a House-passed bill would hurt rather than help Pentagon streamlining.

Testifying before the Senate Armed Services Committee, McElroy criticized particularly a House provision restricting the power Eisenhower asked to transfer, reassign, abolish or consolidate functions established by law.

May Appeal to Congress

Under the bill passed by the House last week, the secretary or chief of staff of the Army, Navy or Air Force may appeal to Congress an order abolishing combatant functions. Congress could reverse the order without possibility of a White House veto.

McElroy told the committee this would amount to "an effective military veto over civilian authority instead of clarifying and enhancing civilian control."

He contended that missiles and other new weapons systems may make changes in functions necessary without delays that could result from appeals to Congress.

Question of Powers

During House debate on the bill, advocates of that provision argued that vesting sole power in the defense secretary without congressional appeal might result in scrapping of the Marines or the Navy Air Force.

This same attitude was reflected in questioning by Chairman Richard B. Russell (D-Ga) and other members of the Armed Services Committee who indicated they are unwilling to abandon congressional control and review of the roles and missions of the armed services.

McElroy also called for elimination of two other provisions—one requiring the defense secretary to administer the services through their civilian secretaries and the other permitting any service secretary or military chief to take any service problem directly to Congress.

Officers Held After Detroit Outlaw Spree

DETROIT (AP) — Two Detroit policemen accused of taking $100,000 in holdups in a four-year outlaw spree were held today in some of the highest bond in Michigan criminal history—$100,000 each.

The federal government's case against Patrolman James R. Burke, 33, described by a police superior as "one of my better officers," and Patrolman David R. Tapp, 26, is being held over until Thursday.

Both Burke and Tapp were brought into U.S. District Court Tuesday, the day of their arrests, by the FBI and police. Judge Thomas P. Thornton set the high bond and adjourned the case when Burke asked for aid of an attorney.

Fellow police referred to Burke and Tapp as "party boys" who liked a good time. Both men, each the father of two children, were separated from their families.

The FBI and police said Burke and Tapp admitted a series of savings and loan office stickups and robberies of a bank and places of business in off - duty hours, sometimes wearing disguises including Army fatigue clothes and Halloween masks.

On duty both had relatively good records. Now broken from the force, Burke had served in uniform for nine years and Tapp since 1954.

Marion Area Auto Mishaps

A Marion man was slightly injured early today when his auto failed to negotiate a turn at the intersection of County Roads 106 and 107 about three miles south of Marion. His car crashed through a fence and into a farm field. The mishap was one of two in the county reported by patrolmen.

Investigating officers of the Marion post said the north-bound auto was driven by Charles W. Watts, 31, of 756 Sheridan Rd. Traveling on County Rd. 107, it failed to make the turn and plowed through a fence owned by John T. Lawrence of near Marion, patrolmen said.

Watts was treated for lacerations of the chin and forehead. His car was badly damaged and considerable damage was done to the fence in the 1:30 a.m. mishap, patrolmen said.

Charged with failure to stop within assured clear distance, he will appear in Municipal Court at a later date.

A Sunbury truck driver was charged with failure to stop within assured clear distance after his vehicle struck the back end of another truck on Rt. 4 three miles south of here at 4:15 p.m. Tuesday, patrolmen reported.

They said Ronald R. Webb, 18, was arrested after his northbound truck hit one driven by Robert R. Vanloon, 23, of Galena, which had slowed at a railroad crossing.

Minor damage was done to the Vanloon truck and moderate damage to the Webb vehicle, according to the report. Webb will appear in Municipal Court June 27.

Red Germans Still Holding 9

Bid To Win Freedom Of U.S. Soldiers Fails

BERLIN (AP) — The United States ran into a deadlock with Communist East Germany today in negotiations to obtain the release of nine imprisoned U.S. Army men.

The U.S. mission in Berlin announced that the third round of talks at the East Berlin Foreign Ministry was unsuccessful. No date has been set for a further meeting.

The American prisoners—eight officers and a sergeant from the 3rd Armored Division in West Germany — were seized by the Communists when their big helicopter strayed across the Iron Curtain June 7 in a storm.

weekly for an unemployed worker with a family.

Currently, it has been estimated that about 40,000 persons have exhausted their benefits and may be entitled to the extended pay.

The governor said he had not determined the amount of additional money needed by the state to continue dollar-for-dollar matching of poor relief expenditures by Ohio's 88 counties. He said the figure, based on latest available reports, would be included in his message to the Legislature.

The ban on billboards agreed upon by legislative leaders would be made under police powers of the state, the governor said.

He explained that the ban would involve no payment by the state for removal of billboards in a 600-foot zone on each side of interstate highways.

The ban would enable the state to obtain additional money for ma-major thoroughfare construction under federal highway aid.

$23 Million Tied Up

The proposal to help sewer and water line extension projects is designed to give a go-ahead to 23 million dollars worth of projects now stymied by a new state law. Attorneys said the present law prevents approval of bond issues to finance the projects. Changes in the law are designed to overcome that hurdle.

The Republican governor reiterated he had taken no stand for or against SUB.

Democrats have said they intend to press for legislative action to permit carrying out of SUB contracts which do not conform with state law. GOP legislative leaders said they would resist such efforts in the special session.

Two SUB test cases are awaiting decision in the Ohio Supreme Court. The issue is whether jobless workers can receive SUB and state unemployment at the same time.

Mahoning County Courts said they could. Those decisions upset a state administrative ruling that SUB must be deducted from state benefits.

The governor previously urged an early Supreme Court decision to settle the issue before the special session. The court indicated a final decision probably would not be handed down until next fall.

Ike's Foreign Aid Bill Given Final Touches

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate and House conferees meet today to put the finishing touches on a $3,675,400,000 foreign aid program tailored to meet virtually all President Eisenhower's specifications.

They reached a tentative agreement Tuesday authorizing, among other things, $1,605,000,000 in military assistance and 810 millions in economic defense supports to allies with which the United States has defense pacts.

Totals Under Ike's Request

The totals in the bill—$3,031,400,000 in new authorizations — are 266½ millions less than Eisenhower asked. That amount will be added to 644 millions in authorizations voted last year for the fiscal year starting July 1.

Even the most enthusiastic supporters of the foreign aid program, however, agree that this $3,675,000,000 figure will be cut sharply when the two houses act on a money bill to provide the funds for which the foreign aid bill simply sets ceilings.

The Senate conferees—at House insistence—dropped a Senate policy statement declaring it is in the United States' interest to join other nations in providing support to India "of the type, magnitude and duration" adequate to help her complete her second five-year plan.

The House conferees, on the other hand, dropped a provision which would have put new restrictions on aid to Yugoslavia. That country's breach with Moscow is steadily widening.

Under existing law, left intact, Eisenhower may continue to aid President Tito's government as long as he is continuously assured it is maintaining independence and is not involved in any plot of world conquest, and that such aid strengthens U.S. national security

The week-long program will offer intensive studies in bank management, investments, monetary systems, credit, public relations and banking law. It is sponsored by the Ohio Bankers Association.

Patriarch Dies

DAMASCUS, Syria (AP)—Alexandros III, 90-year-old Greek Orthodox patriarch of Antioch and the Entire East, died Tuesday. The church's oldest leader had been operated on last Thursday for an abscess in the region of the appendix.

Since 1931 he had governed the Greek Orthodox community in Syria, Lebanon, Iraq and part of Turkey plus thousands of its members who had migrated to the United States and Latin America.

French Agree To Withdraw Tunis Troops

TUNIS (AP)—Long troubled relations between France and Tunisia are expected to improve markedly as the result of an agreement to withdraw a third of the French troops in this former protectorate and concentrate the rest at Bizerte.

The agreement also should improve the West's position in the key North African republic. President Habib Bourguiba has been handicapped in trying to keep Tunisia on a pro-Western course by the troops' presence, which was considered a threat and an affront to national sovereignty.

The agreement announced Tuesday night provides that 7,000 French soldiers will be out of the country within four months, French officials said. The remaining 15,000 will be stationed at the Bizerte naval and air base, which now is manned by 12,000 men.

A Tunisian government spokesman said after the 7,000 are gone, talks will open on the status of the Bizerte base. The West wants to keep it in French hands for use if necessary by the North Atlantic Treaty Organization.

Since February, Tunisian forces have blockaded Bizerte and other French military posts in the country.

Before Tunisia was granted independence March 20, 1956, France had 40,000 troops here. She kept 22,000 on, under terms which were supposed to be negotiated later, to help protect Tunisia and in hopes of stopping aid to rebels in neighboring Algeria.

French planes bombed a Tunisian border village Feb. 8 on the ground it harbored Algerian rebels, killing 79 civilians, and Bourguiba demanded immediate evacuation of all French troops. A makeshift Tunisian militia blockaded the French in their bases near Tunis and at Bizerte, Sfax, Gabes, Gafsa and Remada. Several clashes occurred at Remada in the southern desert.

In advance of his visit to the Capitol, Garcia had an hour-long date with President Eisenhower.

The Philippine leader arrived here Tuesday on a three - day state visit.

Defense Department officials, viewing Garcia's island republic as an important defense area, indicated they are backing support of the wavering Philippine economy.

Garcia was greeted with full military honors when he arrived at Washington's National Airport aboard President Eisenhower's personal plane, Columbine III. Eisenhower and other government dignitaries were on hand for personal greetings.

Tuesday night, Eisenhower entertained the Philippine President and Mrs. Garcia at a White House state dinner.

Ike

asked whether, in the light of the Adams-Goldfine situation, it would be proper for other government employes to do what Adams did and win Eisenhower's approval.

He replied that he always has striven for the highest, impeccable standards in the case of White House staff members. He said the goal is the same in the case of employes of all other agencies, but that he does not have as close contact with them as with members of his own staff.

Can't Act Directly

Eisenhower also said he is not able to act directly with respect to workers in other agencies. The matter there, he said, is in the hands of Cabinet members and agency heads.

The news conference attracted 257 reporters. It dealt, for the most part, with the controversy over Adams.

Also discussed was the situation in Lebanon.

Asked under what conditions the United States might take military action in the Lebanon crisis, Eisenhower replied he could not answer that precisely. He also said he did not care to make predictions.

The situation in Lebanon, the President added, is being studied by Dag Hammarskjold, the United Nations secretary general, and by a U.N. armistice team. What the United States does in the situation, he said, will depend on the findings of those people.

During the discussion of relations between Adams, the No. 1 White House aide, and Goldfine, a Boston industrialist, a reporter said Rep. Oren Harris (D-Ark) had said that Adams violated the law in obtaining certain information from the Federal Trade Commission regarding Goldfine's business troubles.

The newsman asked whether Eisenhower makes any distinction between the situation in that case and in some others which involved officials in the Truman administration.

Had Denounced 'Mess'

The Republicans, in their campaign, had denounced what they labelled "the mess" in Washington under Truman.

Eisenhower said there are certain facts available which would help answer the question. But he referred his questioner to White House press secretary James C. Hagerty for the answer.

In his statement, which he read solemnly and somewhat sternly, the President said intense publicity surrounding Adams made it desirable and even necessary that he start the session with an expression of his own views.

"First, as a result of this entire incident, all of us should have been made aware of one truth," Eisenhower said. "That is that a gift is not necessarily a bribe. One is evil; the other is a tangible expression of friendship."

Adams has acknowledged that he accepted gifts, some of them expensive, from Goldfine during a period when the industrialist was in trouble before federal agencies.

Adams also has said that Goldfine got no favored treatment because of his friendship with him—and that he (Adams) never sought any such treatment for his friend.

Considered Titoist

Death of Nagy Clouds Kadar's Future Position

By CARL HARTMAN

BUDAPEST, Hungary (AP) — The execution of Imre Nagy raises the question of what will happen to his collaborator and successor, Janos Kadar, the current Communist boss of Hungary.

Nagy and Kadar were both considered Titoists, Communists who thought the local parties should be allowed to depart from Moscow's dictates to meet local conditions.

Worked Together Closely

At the start of the 1956 revolt, they worked closely together. When Hungary's Communist party command reorganized in the midst of the crisis, Kadar became the party chief, a job he still holds. He was a member of Nagy's Cabinet and presumably backed its measures.

Kadar in speeches and interviews supported the revolt. Then he broke with Nagy to collaborate with the Soviet forces which installed him in power.

After Nagy took refuge in the Yugoslav Embassy, Kadar gave him a safe-conduct and arrested Nagy when he left the embassy.

Many observers believe that Kadar had promised Yugoslav President Tito there would be no trial for Nagy. As recently as April 3 Kadar brushed off the whole question of Nagy in a talk with this correspondent, saying it was "not of current interest." He added that the ex - premier was at a health resort he had wanted to go to.

Ought To Be Forgotten

He implied the whole matter ought to be forgotten.

What happened to revive it?

Most observers here and in Belgrade believe the executions to be the result of the quarrel between Moscow and Tito. But what remains unclear is the wider picture of which this strike at Tito and Titoism is a part. Here are some of the questions being asked:

1. Was the trial of Nagy meant to show other Communist regimes the danger of Tito's independent ideas?

2. Why does the official Hungarian statement say comparatively little about "American capitalists" and instead emphasize charges that Nagy collaborated with British diplomats?

3. Where does the execution of Nagy fit into the war being waged throughout the Communist world between Khrushchev's supporters and his Stalinist enemies?

Kadar is Khrushchev's man in that fight. It may be significant that Kadar's name was not mentioned once in the long official recounting of Nagy's alleged sins.

The next act may be played this week. Hungary's Communist Parliament meets Thursday. Kadar's demeanor there may indicate which way the wind is blowing.

Ike Expresses Severe Shock At Executions

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower said today the execution of former Hungarian Premier Imre Nagy has given a great setback to hopes for a summit conference.

Eisenhower told his news conference he cannot think of anything that has shocked the civilized world as much as the execution of Nagy and his associates in the Hungarian revolt.

The President said these men were not guilty of evildoing but were fighting for their country. He said good faith had been violated in their execution.

This act, he said, can be regarded as clear evidence of the intent of the Soviet Union to pursue a policy of terrorism and intimidation aimed to enforce complete servitude.

Nagy's execution, the President went on, has alerted the free world to the lack of confidence it is compelled to feel in the Communist imperialists.

Labor

"a bill with which honorable men can live."

Sen. John F. Kennedy (D-Mass), chief author and floor manager, called the bill "an effective weapon in the hands of responsible leaders, honest members and the federal government in driving the racketeers and mobsters out of the labor movement."

Concedes Dissatisfaction

Sen. John L. McClellan (D-Ark) chairman of the Rackets Committee, also helped the sponsors with his plea not to load the bill down with amendments which might kill it. But McClellan conceded he was dissatisfied with parts of the measure.

Sen. William F. Knowland (R-Calif), who sparked the fight for many of the rejected amendments, said the bill represents "progress toward assuring the workers control of their own affairs."

Key provisions of the bill would require detailed financial reporting by unions, union leaders, middlemen and employers, provide for secret elections and limit terms of union officers, open a way to end union trusteeships over locals after 18 months, bar a person convicted of a felony from serving as a union officer unless pardoned, and make it a federal crime to embezzle union funds.

Other Provisions

It would also ban use of union funds to promote an individual candidacy in an election, fix criminal penalties for failure to file the reports or for false entries in them, prohibit a loan of more than $1,500 from union funds to a union officer or member, and ban organizational picketing designed to shake down an employer.

Unions also are given in the bill two provisions they long have wanted. One would permit replaced strikers to vote in a bargaining election; the other would legalize agreements signed by a building trades union before the job begins.

Kidnaping

The boy turned up in the home of Edward Royer, a taxi driver in Ottawa, 100 miles west of Montreal. Royer said a blonde woman between 35 and 40 years old hailed his cab Monday. Speaking with a thick foreign accent and identifying herself as Mrs. Greta Braun, she asked him to mind her son while she shopped.

Royer took Joel home and notified police when the woman failed to show up as agreed Monday afternoon. Ottawa police did not identify the boy as Joel until Mrs. Reitman broadcast a radio appeal to the kidnaper Tuesday.

The Reitmans brought Joel home from Ottawa Tuesday night. He rushed happily into the arms of his grandfather Sam Reitman, president of a chain of 98 women's wear stores. Cyril Reitman is a buyer for his father's stores.

Seeks Talks With U.S.

TOKYO (AP) — Japanese Foreign Minister Aiichiro Fujiyama said in Parliament today he hopes to fly to Washington to discuss banning nuclear tests and to resist U. S. moves to curtail imports from Japan.

The Foreign Minister said it is time to adjust U. S. and Japanese views on issues between the two countries, to keep up with changes in the world situation.

Loschky Dairy Program One of Union's Finest

Registered, Grade Holsteins Make DHIA Tests

By ALLAN BOVEY
Marion Star Farm Editor

Loose housing, artificial breeding, plenty of ensilage and a complete testing program under DHIA supervision.

On these principles, Arthur Loschky (rhymes with Lush-key), farming 300 acres in Union County's Union Township, about 10 miles south of Marysville, operates, according to county agent Lowell Wilson, "one of this area's best dairy programs."

Farmer - dairyman Loschky, a native of Union County, comes by his current success with a 30-cow Holstein herd quite honestly. Operating on the farm along State Rt. 38 where he was born, Mr. Loschky, a firm believer in the potentialities of dairying, has been in business for himself nine years. During that time he has milked a herd comprised of both registered and grade cows, with an aim towards maintaining an all-registered herd. His goal is about two-thirds realized to date.

THE LOSCHKY herd of 30 milkers is "just about the size we plan to stick with," Art notes. His overall herd numbers between 50 and 60 head, from which virtually all replacements come.

At present, the herd is averaging between 440 and 450 pounds of butterfat, up considerably from last year when the average dropped to 400 pounds. Mr. Loschky can't readily account for the decline but says it's comforting to see the average on the rise again.

The Loschky cows are milked nine at a time in a stanchion-type barn with three single-unit milkers. The Grade-A milk is picked up every other day by a truck from Columbus' Borden Dairy Co. A bulk tank is among the facilities for good dairying on the Loschky farm. Time was when the Grade-B milk was produced on the place. But that was only while Art got his herd and facilities in shape for the Grade-A milk.

This farmer is a firm believer in loose housing, with cows confined only long enough to ready them for milking. Mr. Loschky realizes more bedding is required in winter in this type of dairying, but notes, too, that the amount of money invested in buildings is less and the space problem is not so acute. He agrees that a parlor would "make it easier on the legs," but has no immediate plans for installing this improvement on his place.

The Loschky cows are on a pasture-rotation program in summer and are fed plenty of silage — both grass and hay — in winter. Two 45-foot silos grace the barnyard, one of which is new this spring, to accommodate the 300 tons of feed required to maintain the herd.

This dairyman has been an enthusiast of artificial breeding since the Northern Ohio Breeding Association got started in 1944. Last year he was elected a director representing Union county. NOBA covers a 30-county area.

Mr. Loschky is currently in his sixth year under DHIA test. In that time he has had two cows exceed the 3,000 pounds of fat mark. One of them — Pietje Blossom, a 10-year-old — has also pailed over 100,000 pounds of milk. The other — Pietje Schmiling Girl — made a record of 365 pounds of fat on her last test. She was an eight-year-old when the test was made.

Calves for sale have been scarce on the Loschky farm. That may not be so in the future, however, if the trend since last fall continues. Since then, Loschky cows have dropped 13 heifer calves.

WHILE DAIRY cows are Art's primary project, a cross - bred swine program is also carried out, with upwards of 200 head fed out each year. The Loschky 300 acres produces virtually all the corn, wheat and forage needed to feed the cow-hog enterprise.

The Loschky family is sold on Holsteins right down the line. Mrs. Loschky is the former Estella Doellinger, daughter of farmers in Madison County and a staunch believer in the merits of Holstein. And, the two Loschky children, Phyllis, 14, a sophomore-to-be in the Chuckery-Darby School, and Darrell, 12, a seventh grader this fall in St. Paul's Lutheran School, are grooming Holstein calves for 4-H competition this summer. Both youngsters are members of the Darby Valley Producers 4-H Club.

A director of the Union County Farm Bureau Cooperative Association, as well as of the NOBA, Arthur Loschky is convinced that dairying is the best of all the enterprises that farmers may engage in. "It's a gamble, sure, but then what part of farming isn't?" he asks.

In short, dairying, in this June dairy month, is being carried on by progressive and successful farmers in Union county. And, Arthur Loschky's program is counted among the area's best. That's a valued tribute in a state where good dairy farms are just about "a dime a dozen."

PROGRESSIVE DAIRYING. That's the type of an operation presently being practiced by Union County's Arthur Loschky, farming 300 acres south of Marysville. The Loschky registered-grade herd is expected to hit the 440-450 average butterfat mark this year. Art is producing Grade-A milk from a 30-cow herd.

ABOVE: This is part of the over-all herd of between 50 and 60 Holsteins from which the Loschky milkers are taken. Art makes his own replacements and practices artificial breeding.

LOWER LEFT: This is Art's stanchion-type barn, where milking is done with three single-unit milkers. His up-to-date facilities include a bulk tank.

LOWER RIGHT: Darrell and Phyllis Loschky show off two of the heifers they're grooming for this summer's Union County Fair Junior Fair competition. In the background is one of two 45-foot silos in which Art stores both grass and corn silage for his herd.

USDA Predicting 4th Biggest Wheat Crop This Season

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Agriculture Department today forecast this year's wheat crop at 1,271,000,000 bushels — the fourth largest of record.

A crop of this size would be more than a third larger than last year and 14 per cent above average. The crop is being grown under rigid production controls which, because of prospective record high yields, will be largely ineffective in preventing new surpluses.

In its June crop survey, the department said good to excellent prospects predominate across the nation and raise the possibility that production this year may set a record.

The department said mounting vegetable supplies signal the end of the early spring shortage and high retail prices.

Kill Poison Ivy

Want to kill your poison ivy this year. Two of the best weed killers to be used are the low volatile ester forms of 2,4-D and 2,4,5-T. You may get them separately or mixed together in preparations commonly called brush killers. Any of the forms is effective, although the brush killer is quicker.

Chewing Her Cud Big Chore in Life Of Bossy-the-Cow

Ever wonder what old bossy, lying contentedly in a field, is so busy chewing? One thing is certain: it isn't Mail Pouch.

As a matter of fact, it's a wad of regurgitated forage, commonly referred to as a cud, and all the chewing is quite necessary.

It is, by the way quite a business. Maude, Nell, Sue or Kate, as the case may be, chomps about 500 cuds a day, each of them from 50 to 70 times in less than a minute.

How are these cuds come by? Simple. The cow, when grazing, simply makes a hog of herself, swallowing all the grass or hay she can get hold of. Then, at her leisure, she lies down, heaves up a bit of her latest meal, chews it up suitable for digestion, swallows it again and the regurgitates another batch. Tricky, eh.

It takes upwards of 33 pounds of saliva for a day's "jawing" and the cow spends about eight of the day's 24 hours lazily chewing.

Yes indeed, you can't accuse the cow of talking too much, but she sure "bangs her gums" plenty.

County's SCD To Send Isler, Rider to Camp

Gerald Rider, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl E. Rider of near Marion, and Don Isler, son of the John Islers of near Prospect, have been elected to attend the conservation camp at Camp Ohio July 14-19, according to W. L. Williams, head of the Marion County Soil Conservation District.

The youths were chosen for their interest and general knowledge in conservation. Both are children of cooperators in local conservation programs.

Their election was among business conducted at the regular meeting of the MCSCD.

In other action, requests for assistance were received from O. L. and Ise Warren, 42 acres in Big Island Township; V. L. Kyle, 130 acres in Pleasant Township; and J. W. Arnold and Mildred D. Guthery, 130 acres in Big Island.

Plans for projects were completed for William Guthery, 394 acres, Bowling Green Township; Robert Huntley, 124 acres, Montgomery; and Darold Jerew, 310 acres, Scott.

It was announced that a total of 17,450 multiflora rose plants had been put out this spring, plus 2,900 pine and spruce seedlings.

Arthur Isler is chairman of the soils district here.

Feeding for Meat-Type Market Hog Is Discussed

This is the last of a series of articles dealing with the swine business in Marion County. Data and figures have been compiled and suggested by the Marion County Swine Improvement Association, with the cooperation of the county extension service.

Once upon a time the farmer who was fattening hogs put as much weight on them as he saw fit, hauled them off to town and went home rejoicing with his proceeds.

Then the consumer began to shy away from paying for fat and the farmer began to be less happy about the money he got for his hogs. And, in a twinkling, the term "meat-type" began to be a prominent one.

Today, the meat-type hog is the one in demand. His carcass is the one furnishing the kind of meat Mrs. Housewife wants to plunk her money down for at the retail counter.

—:—

NOW COMES THE question, can farmers afford to feed meat-type swine? The Marion County Swine Improvement Association, together with Ellwood Parrott, county extension director, had a confab on this query and came up with several suggestions.

But first of all, what, precisely is a meat-type hog? It is, say those who know, one that has a carcass of superior meat value.

A carcass of superior meat value is one in which the primal cut yield is as near 50 per cent as possible. And what are primal cuts? They're the skinned hams, trimmed loin (porkchops), trimmed belly and New York shoulder. To meet requirements for certification through the evaluation testing program at Ohio State University, notes Mr. Parrott, a carcass must yield 47 per cent primal cuts to be certified commercial and over 49 per cent to rate the superior stamp.

This swine evaluation station is a unique business. Set up by OSU, its purpose is to provide facilities where breeders may have two pigs per litter fed under uniform conditions of feeding and management. Feed efficiency, rate of gain and carcass value are a few of the findings of the station's researchers.

You might be interested to know that Marion County ranks third in the number of litters tested at the station. Marion farmers have had 35 litters in the program. Fayette is first with 57, Knox is second with 41, and Delaware third with 38. Behind Marion come Champaign, Allen and Miami counties. These figures cover the period since the program was inaugurated in the fall of 1954.

—:—

STATEWIDE, a total of 739 litters from 165 breeders have participated in the program, with 79 litters representing 23 breeders cooperating in the field program. Of these, 228 litters were certified superior and 265 commercial.

The results of the station's tests are significant. For example: certified superior pigs had a percentage of primal cuts of adjusted live weight of 49.96, compared to 48.61 for all other pigs.

The per cent of fat trim from the superior carcasses was 15.18, compared to 16.36 from all others, while the percentage of ham, loin and shoulder was 51.12 for superior hogs, and 50.48 for others. The square inches of loin eye in the superior carcasses totaled 4.05. It was only 3.73 in others.

To produce the superior carcasses, 337.1 pounds of feed were required for every 100 pounds of gain. It took 342 pounds of feed for the other hogs per 100 pounds. Both sets of pigs gained 1.7 pounds per day, with the dressing percentage of the superior carcasses amounting to 74.55, compared to 74.28 for all others

Farmers have discovered that the best carcass took the least amount of feed, even while producing the best results. The conclusion, observes the county swine association, is inescapable. Meat-type hogs have proved themselves as efficient as their lard-type cousins. Moreover, they yield a carcass more in keeping with what the consumer wants

And, it, makes no difference which breed you're talking about. Every breed can produce meat-type swine. Emphasizes Mr. Parrott: "You must look facts in the face. If meat-type carcasses are what is in demand, why raise anything else?"

Starling-TGE Research Still Not Conclusive

Do starlings help spread transmissable gastroenteritis in swine? That's a question that farmers in Marion and neighboring counties wondered about when the disease was on a rampage this spring.

To make a check poisoned baits were put out on the Marion city dump and some dead starlings were gathered up and sent to the Reynoldsburg laboratory. There they were ground up, worked into a serum and the latter was injected into a group of swine.

This week Dr. Harry E. Goldstein, veterinarian in charge of the laboratory's epidemiology section, reports that although the pigs submitted with TGE came down with it, so, too, did a group of control animals.

Conclusion: although there is a good possibility that starlings may be carriers of TGE from one farm to another, this opinion must still be substantiated with accurate data.

Ellwood Parrott, county extension director, points out that although the Reynoldsburg facility is not designed specifically for research, it has pledged its full support in exploring the problem. And, work is expected to be done also at the Ohio Agricultural Experiment Station later this summer when the chance of susceptable pigs getting exposed to TGE from outside sources is practically nil.

Buckeye State Third in Maple Syrup Making

124,000 Gallons Are Produced This Year; Vermont U.S. Leader

There was lots of sap in Ohio this year and it wasn't in the state's residents.

It was, in fact, in its sugar maple trees. All told, enough sap was drawn to produce 124,000 gallons of syrup, enough to hike the state back into third place among the nation's maple syrup producers.

F. W. Dean, Ohio State University extension forester, observes that the state, which slipped to fourth place a year ago with a production of 91,000 gallons, achieved this year's gallonage from 330,000 trees, a few under the number tapped a year ago.

The season in the Buckeye state opened eight days later and closed seven days later than it did in 1957, Mr. Dean notes. He adds that weather was favorable for the gathering process, with little or no snow or rain to hamper operations

Temperatures fell below freezing almost every night and rose only once or twice above 45 or 50 degrees during the day. The sap flow was slow until about the middle of March, after which came the "good run" which lasted about 10 days.

Syrup color was not as light as a year ago, but in excess of 90 per cent of the production was rated of high quality this season. Extensionist Dean points out.

Topping the list of Ohio's syrup-producing counties are Morrow, Richland, Logan, Geauga, Ashtabula and Portage. Only Vermont and New York topped the state in production.

Utah Is Declared Brucellosis-Free In USDA Report

Of all the diseases of dairy cattle both dairymen and veterinarians battle each year, none is combatted with more fervor than brucellosis, also known as Bang's disease and contagious abortion.

The fight against the ravages of the bacteria of the genus Brucella is a never-ending one, and although progress at times seems slow, here and there the fight comes closer to being won.

For example: the USDA announces this week that as of June 1, Utah has been declared a modified-certified brucellosis fee state.

Why is this such an honor? It so happens that only 11 other of the country's 48 states hold a similar distinction, and Ohio is not among this charmed circle.

In order to qualify for certification, not more than one per cent of Utah's cattle and not more than five per cent of all herds in the state could be infected with the disease.

Utah becomes the first state in the intermountain area and the second western area to achieve this recognition, the USDA points out.

Other states now certified brucellosis free are Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, Connecticut, Delaware, Maine, Minnesota, New Hampshire, North Carolina, Vermont, Washington and Wisconsin.

Will Begin Practice

Another veterinarian will soon be practicing in the Crawford County area. Dr. John E. Stump, son of the Clarence Stumps of near Galion, has become associated with Dr. R. E. Knappenberger of Bucyrus. Dr. Stump, whose wife is the former Patricia Auer of Galion, is a graduate of Galion High School in 1952, and the Ohio State University college of veterinary medicine. The Stumps will reside in Bucyrus.

Considering its cost per pound, milk furnishes more food value for the money than any other food material available, say Purdue University nutrition experts.

Farm Econogram

Here's Report on Prices and Economic Trends Prepared by Agricultural Extension Service

Farm property tax payments likely to show rise of five per cent in U.S. for 1958. Farm real estate taxes which account for four - fifths of all farm property taxes are up about six per cent (averaged 96 cents per acre), a new record. Ohio increase not announced yet, but if it were six per cent as in U.S., total amount per acre would average $1.80.

Land values are still increasing. Nationally, and in Ohio, they are six per cent above a year ago. They increased one per cent both nationally and in Ohio in the six month period between Nov. and March. In last year 38 per cent of all sales were to enlarge existing farms in the U.S.

—:—

Ohio ranks third in value of farm real estate per acre in the more important agricultural states. California is tops with a value of $282 per acre followed by Illinois at $273, Ohio at $234 per acre, and Indiana at $233 average per acre.

—:—

Total value of farm buildings in Ohio amounts to $1.7 billion, higher than any other state. Average value per farm is $9,711 compared with $7,205 for the corn belt and $5,642 for U.S. All northeastern states average $10,410 in value of buildings per farm.

—:—

Value of farm real estate in 1860 averaged $16.31 per acre in the U.S. In 1958 the average value is $100.39 per acre.

—:—

Rent per acre of farms rented wholly for cash were reported higher in 1958 in Ohio and surroundi ng state. Highes rates reported in Illinois, Iowa and Indiana. Ohio reported $12.30 average per acre; Indiana, $15.75: Illinois, $20.05; Iowa, $16.10; Kansas, $6.45 and North Dakota, $3.85.

—:—

Feed wheat exemption sign up extended to June 6, 1958. Former deadline was Oct. 15, 1957. Feed wheat law permits farmers whose wheat allotment is less than 30 acres to grow up to 30 acres of wheat for use exclusively on the farm where produced without being subject to marketing quota penalty.

—:—

Corn: Fairly large quantities of corn under support at the non-compliance level ($1.10 per bushel national average) and larger "free" supplies than a year ago expected to limit further increases in corn prices this spring and summer.

—:—

Early lamb condition on May 1 ranged from good to excellent in the western states to about average in Missouri and southeastern states.

—:—

Agricultural exports through July-March for 1957-58 estimated 16 per cent less than year earlier. Principal declines were in cotton, wheat and wheat flour, edible vegetable oils, livestock products and rice. Partly offsetting increase occurred in feed grains, tobacco, soybeans and flaxseed. Factors in export decline are larger foreign supplies, reduced availability of CCC stocks and smaller U.S. crops and slackened business activity abroad.

Yearly Angus Fete Scheduled June 22

The annual Marion County Angus Association barbecue and picnic will be held Sunday, June 22, on the Vernon Gruber farm east of Marion on Rt. 95.

Plans for the fete were made at the regular meeting of the association.

Chosen to the several committees were the following county Angusmen: program, Larry Duprey, Lloyd Mattison and Ellis Duprey; meat, Lawrence Weiss and Paul Almendinger; buns, P. D. Lockwood; and lemonade, Oscar Murphy.

Mr. Gruber and all other committee members will dig the barbecue pit at 9 a.m. Saturday preceding the picnic.

Vocational-Agriculture Teachers at Conference

Nine Marion County vocational-agriculture teachers are concluding sessions of an annual Techniques in Teaching conference in Columbus today.

Upwards of 350 agriculture teachers from all over Ohio have been attending all or part of the three-day program in the Youth Center at the Ohio State Fairgrounds. Representing Marion County have been Dallas Cornett, Lawton McClintock, Bruce Malcuit, James Scisson, John Thomas, John Watkins, John Barry, Burdette Hunter and Lowell Hedges.

One of the key speakers was E. E. Holt, former Marionite, now head of the state department of public instruction.

New Silage Idea

Allen Holmes of New Hampshire's Cheshire County, is no man to fiddle around while the time to work is at hand. He found out that his 42-foot elevator can load ensilage into his silo faster than a blower and with considerably less power. It will, he asserts, put four tons of grass silage into a silo in about nine minutes. There may be one catch to this method though. Farmer Holmes doesn't say how many men it takes to keep the silage mowed properly.

Referendum Is Set Friday for Wheat Raisers

Friday is the day.

That's when the nation's wheat farmers vote on marketing quotas on the 1959 crop.

If at least two-thirds of the growers vote in favor of quotas, price supports will be pegged at a minimum national average of $1.81 per bushel, or 75 per cent of parity. If the measure is turned down, the prop will be $1.20 a bushel, or 50 per cent of parity.

This will be the eighth referendum since 1941. Nationally, marketing quotas have been favored on each occasion.

Marion County farmers will vote as follows, depending on the township in which they live: Caledonia council room, Claridon, Scott and Tully; Waldo township house, Prospect, Richland and Waldo; New Bloomington town hall; Big Island, Bowling Green, Grand, Montgomery and Salt Rock; and Marion ASC office, Grand Prairie, Green Camp, Marion and Pleasant.

The majority of the area and country's farm groups have gone on record as favoring an affirmative referendum vote. Ed Pfeiffer, president of the Marion County Farmers Union, for example, is urging farmers to turn out and vote yes for marketing quotas. He points out that the difference in the price per bushel of wheat next year will be almost $1 if the quotas are turned down. "And that $1," he says, "is a mighty big one considering the farm's operating costs today."

Picnic, Tour Planned

A Headwaters Soil Conservation District tour and picnic was planned at a meeting of the supervisers in Mount Gilead. The picnic will be held in the State Lakes Park June 22 starting at 1 p.m., with the tour to follow. In the event of rain, the picnic will be held at the Morrow County fairgrounds.

Rains Destroy Hay Crops in Much of Ohio

Marion County Loss Is Estimated at About 30 Per Cent of Total

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Recent heavy rains destroyed from 20 to 35 per cent of Ohio's hay crop.

Dr. James R. Hay, state agriculture director, said today "all over the state our reports show 20 to 35 per cent of the hay was cut when the heavy rains came and is a total loss."

He blamed Friday's deluge for most of the damage which throughout the state is spotty. He said that in the west and southwest, there was flooding, crop loss in the bottom lands is complete.

Dr. Hay gave this summary of the damage:

Central Ohio (South of Columbus)—about 10 per cent of corn crop damaged, 10 per cent of soy bean crop damage and 30 per cent of hay crop damaged. (North of Columbus)—little damage to corn, beans and wheat but 25 to 30 per cent damage to hay.

Northern Ohio—Not much damage except 30 per cent of hay crop in Marion and Upper Sandusky regions. In Tiffin area, five per cent of corn, 5 per cent of beans and 30 per cent of hay lost.

Northwest Ohio—20 to 25 per cent of hay crop lost but other crops in good shape. Some damage in Van Wert area but water receding.

Northeast Ohio—Damage confined to about 20 per cent of hay crops, most other crops all right.

Southeast Ohio—Damage confined to 20 per cent of hay crop. Some stream overflow but not many crops involved. No information available for the Marietta area.

Southern Ohio—Corn and soy bean damage in Ashville, Lockbourne, Circleville and Chillicothe areas ranging from 5 to 15 per cent. Hay damage from 20 to 30 per cent.

Southwestern Ohio—From 20 to 30 per cent of hay crop in Fayette-Clinton county area.

Western and rest of southwestern Ohio—(Dayton, Middletown, Eaton, Hamilton area)—Average damage corn 15 per cent, beans 12 per cent, wheat 10 per cent, hay 30 per cent, tobacco 5 per cent and tomatoes from 15 to 25 per cent. Miami and Stillwater River Valley areas show lightest percentage of overflow damage.

Sheep Dipping Is Under Way Here On 10,000 Animals

Oberdier Bros. of LaRue, began the job of dipping upwards of 10,000 head of sheep in Marion County Monday.

Sponsored by the Marion County Sheep Improvement Association, the task is expected to take about three weeks. The total number of sheep represent in the neighborhood of 250 area farms.

Ellwood Parrott, county extension director, says that anyone who has not yet notified his office of the intention of having their flock dipped, should do so immediately.

Farmers will be notified several days prior to the anticipated arrival of the dippers. Sheep are required to be shut up in order to avoid excessive overheating at the time of the dipping.

Evolution Noted

Ice Cream, Once Rarity, Is Delight for All Today

Ice cream today is just about as common as the proverbial "old shoe." But it wasn't always so.

Time was when you had to be a member of the "upper crust" to enjoy ice cream. In fact, it was so hard come by, that to be able to afford it put you in the circle of society where the dessert fell into the category of "conspicuous consumption," the kind of utilization Thorstein Veblen dearly loved to talk about in his "Theory of the Leisure Class."

History has it that Alexander the Great, relaxing from an arduous day on the battlefield, liked to repose at eventide with a dish of ice cream. He minded not the flavor. And the tyrant Nero, it is rumored, not only fiddled while Rome burned, but had the temerity to enjoy a cone or two as well.

Marco Polo meandered across both Europe and Asia, finding out all sorts of things which he duly recorded for posterity. But, alas, he was scooped on the ice cream story, for lo, the Chinese had been making it for something like 3,000 years.

Dolly Madison, President James' wife, served it in the White House in 1813, and was considered a hep cat thereafter.

The business of ice cream making was a bit of a chore in those early days, but it was simplified in 1786, when the first rotary paddle freezer is said to have been dreamed up. For the first time the product could be kept smooth while freezing.

In 1851, an entrepreneur named Jacob Fussell got a bee in his bonnet, shortly put some rustle in his bustle and opened a plant in Pennsylvania. In a trice he had similar businesses going in Washington, Boston and New York, where simply everyone who was anyone ate ice cream.

From that moment on, ice cream stood forth in the spotlight of popularity, its star rising to the zenith of renown it enjoys today. And, everyone who was even no one began to enjoy its delights.

And what of the sundae and the soda?

The soda was the brainstorm of one Robert Green back in 1874. It seems that Mr. Green went to an exposition in Philadelphia one fine day to show off an ice cream freezer, so-called. The delicacy he hawked was a mixture of sweet cream, syrup and carbonated water.

All went well until quite without warning he ran out of cream. The customers clamored for more and Green was perplexed. But not for long. He enterprisingly bought a quantity of ice cream, made it suffice for the cream and thereby made the ice cream soda an institution.

It was in the late 1890's that the sundae came about. Old timers allow as how over Indiana-way, townspeople of one quaint village were so pious they forbid the sale of anything on Sunday with soda therein. Thus exit the soda. But again, not for long. Some wise jerk behind a soda fountain served the ice cream with syrup instead of soda.

The sodaless soda became, in short order, the "Sunday soda." But horrors, who would dare call a dish of ice cream after the Sabbath. Result: dilemma. Solution: change the spelling from "Sunday" to "sundae." So it was done and the English language had a new word.

Today we ask for a cone, a sundae or a soda with a nonchalant flourish. All it takes is a nckel, a dime or a quarter. Ice cream's been around a long time. It was the enjoyment of the idle rich yesterday; today it belongs to "Tom, Dick and Harry."

Congress Writes 'Blank Check'

Central Intelligence Budget Okayed Speedily Each Year

By JOHN SCALI

WASHINGTON (AP)—A money-conscious Congress bestows an estimated 350 million dollars a year on an agency so secret only a handful of the highest officials know how the money is spent.

The hush-hush expenditures are charged off to the high cost of spying.

And the supersecret outfit is the Central Intelligence Agency.

The CIA operates a vast American espionage network in an atomic - space age when the merest scrap of information could mean the difference between survival and annihilation.

First of a Series

So rigid is the secrecy that when brickbats fly, when Congress grumbles over failures, real or imaginary, the CIA takes it in silence. It says simply:

"We never alibi. We never explain."

—:—

TO ALIBI or explain might reveal a source and endanger the undercover legion of men and women who gather its information throughout the world.

The CIA is unique among American governmental agencies.

Its estimated budget of 350 million dollars is little better than a reasonably good guess.

But, if the estimate is correct, it is 130 million dollars more than the State Department spends on its 282 diplomatic outposts around the world.

Only a handful of top executives in the government know exactly how many people work for the CIA.

The State Department has about 16,000 American employes. It has been estimated that the CIA has almost as many. But, again, an outsider cannot say for sure.

(The Soviet Union is believed to be spending six times as much as the CIA on espionage. And up to 45,000 Soviet agents are said to be directly engaged in spying.)

—:—

COMPARISONS drawn between CIA and State are particularly apt. Each is run by a man named Dulles.

CIA Director Allen Welsh Dulles, 65, brother of Secretary of State John Foster Dulles, is a heavy-set man with a bushy, white walrus-type mustache. He's headed the CIA for 5½ of its nearly 11 years of existence.

Allen Dulles' job is unique in at least one respect. He can write a check for a million dollars without telling even the government accounting office exactly why he is spending the money.

Most congressmen, who watch financial matters like a detective eyeing a pickpocket, have only a vague idea of how much the CIA spends and what it spends it for. Yet each year the agency's budget is appropriated promptly.

The exact figure is known to six senators and representatives who form the special subcommittee that handles CIA finances.

Why spend so much on espionage?

Like everything else, the cost of spying has shot up like the Sputniks and missiles that make it urgently necessary.

—:—

ONLY A SMALL percentage of CIA funds goes to pay the salaries of thousands of men and women employes, stateside and overseas.

A big chunk goes for maintenance of its Washington nerve center housed in 35 buildings.

The essence of CIA intelligence reports winds up each morning on President Eisenhower's desk. It covers the high spots on the previous 24 hours in the world's trouble spots.

The report comes to the President as a terse 500-word summary, written in short, punchy sentences. It can be digested by a busy President in about two minutes.

What kind of record has the CIA compiled in forecasting cold war events?

A newsman going to the source invariably runs into the tight secrecy surrounding the heart of the operation.

But from other sources, including congressional, it is possible to estimate the CIA record on nine important world developments of the past three years.

The scoreboard:

Soviet satellites—Excellent. The CIA warned for a year that the Soviet Union was capable of launching its first Sputnik in 1957.

Missiles—Good. But the agency was conservative in forecasting the size and thrust of Soviet rockets.

—:—

ANTI-NIXON RIOTS in Latin America—Very good. But the CIA apparently failed to foresee the dangerous disorganization of the new Venezuelan police force.

Indonesian revolt—Excellent.

Soviet nuclear test ban—Excellent.

Bulganin - Khrushchev reshuffle—Very good. The CIA not only forecast this three months earlier but it fingered Frol Kozlov as a fast-rising Kremlin newcomer.

Hungarian revolt — Fair. The CIA reported signs of mounting unrest in Hungary but even it was surprised when the people actually revolted.

Suez war—Good. The CIA predicted British and French troops would invade Egypt a few days before they did.

Suez Canal seizure—Not good. The CIA failed to estimate fully Nasser's reaction to the withdrawal of a proposed U. S. loan for construction of the Aswan Dam.

Special Grand Jury Hearing Slated for Cook

DELAWARE — County Prosecutor George Smythe said today he is calling a special session of the Delaware County grand jury to consider six charges against 37 year-old Fred Cook of Columbus.

Mr. Smythe said Cook has retained William Toler, Columbus attorney, and has waived preliminary hearing which was to be held Thursday. Pleas of not guilty were entered for him and he is being held for the jury under $50,000 bond.

Cook, the object of an intense manhunt until his capture last Thursday night in Columbus, is charged with four counts of criminal assault and one charge each of assault with malicious intent to maim, disfigure or kill, and breaking and entering with intent to commit a felony.

The Delaware prosecutor said Cook has been uncooperative during questioning and now refuses to discuss the charges.

A criminal assault on two Delaware County women June 11 touched off the search for Cook that resulted in his capture the following night by two Columbus policemen.

Computer by GE To Make Bomber Nearly Automatic

WASHINGTON (AP)—General Electric Co. has developed a new kind of airborne computer which it said would make a modern fighter-bomber nearly automatic.

As described at a meeting of military electronics specialists Tuesday, the digital computer can:

1. Help the pilot navigate from his base to the target.
2. Choose the particular weapon to be employed, and prepare it for firing.
3. Control the approach maneuvers of the plane as it nears the target.
4. Release a bomb or missile at the proper moment with regard to altitude, wind velocity, distance from the target and other conditions.
5. Select the best altitude and speed, from the standpoint of fuel economy, for the flight home.
6. Direct the aircraft back to its base.

The computer was developed by GE's Light Military Electronic Equipment Department at Utica, N. Y., and was described by M. R. Johnson, manager of the department's armament and control section.

Man Bitten by Dog

Cleveland Honored

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Cleveland was named the "typical American city" Tuesday at the National Junior Chamber of Commerce convention here. Charles S. Shearer Jr., Jaycee president from Shelbyville, Ind., said Cleveland, where 42 nationalities are represented, will tell through Voice of America broadcasts how a typical American city lives.

Commercial woodlands in the U.S. are growing enough sawtimber every day to fill a train of box cars 530 miles long.

Body Recovered

CIRCLEVILLE, Ohio (AP) — Pickaway County sheriff's deputies Tuesday recovered the body of Glenn Forrest, 31, of Rt. 1, Circleville, who drowned Friday when his boat overturned in the Scioto River just south of the Franklin-Pickaway County line. Sheriff Charles Radcliff said the body of the father of five was found about a quarter-mile below the point where the boat capsized.

Yanks End Slump, Register 4-0 Win Over Indians

Tribe Blanked on 3-Hitter As Ford Tops Ray Narleski

CLEVELAND (AP) — Thoughts that the New York Yankees were headed for a prolonged slump proved premature, the Cleveland Indians discovered Tuesday night.

All the Yankees needed to end their four-game losing string was some pitching and timely hitting.

They got both in defeating Cleveland, 4-0, before 29,727 at Municipal Stadium. Whitey Ford (8-2) applied the whitewash job with a three - hitter and Bill Skowron smashed a three-run homer in the sixth inning when the American League leaders scored all their runs.

Win Streak Snapped

The defeat snapped the Indians' four-game winning skein, established at the expense of the Washington Senators, and dropped them into fifth place.

Ray Narleski (8-5) matched Ford pitch for pitch—except in the sixth frame. The Yankee left - hander struck out 10 and walked two. Narleski yielded six hits—only Skowron's was well hit—and struck out nine while walking three.

In the sixth, Hank Bauer beat out a bunt with one out and raced to second when Billy Moran threw wildly to first. After getting Gil McDougald on a foul to the catcher, Narleski intentionally passed the dangerous Mickey Mantle. Yogi Berra blooped a single to right, scoring Bauer with the New Yorkers' first run in 25 innings.

Skowron Hits No. 7

Then Skowron slammed his drive into the left field seats for his seventh homer of the season.

The only Cleveland hits were singles by Mickey Vernon in the second inning, by Ricky Colavito in the seventh, and a last-inning blow by Minnie Minoso. When Colavito followed with a walk in the ninth, Minoso became the first Indian to get as far as second base off Ford. Dick Brown ended the contest by flying to right field.

Don Ferrarese, the little Cleveland left-hander who suffered a sprained ankle three weeks ago and hasn't pitched since, is set to face the Yankees tonight in the second of the three-game series. His mound opponent will be Art Ditmar, making his first start of the campaign.

Tigers, Chisox Begin Moves In AL's Chase

By The Associated Press

That new born "race" in the American League still is struggling to stay alive.

With the Detroit Tigers and Chicago White Sox on the move at last, things are looking up—if you can shrug off the fact the New York Yankees have padded their lead by one game while losing 8 of 14.

Southpaw Whitey Ford won his seventh in a row with a three-hitter that beat Cleveland 4-0 Tuesday night as the Yankees ended their losing slump at four and junked their shutout string at 24 innings.

Tigers To Be 4th

The Tigers moved into fourth place with a 9-2 victory over Washington. The Senators dropped into eighth place as Detroit won its fifth in a row and seventh in eight starts under new manager Bill Norman, who took over a last-place club a week ago.

Southpaw Billy Pierce squared his record at 5-5 and gave the White Sox staff its third consecutive shutout with a five-hitter that beat Boston 4-0. That made it four straight for Chicago, now in sixth place, while leaving the second-place Red Sox eight games behind New York.

Kansas City missed a chance to

Judge Sets Aside Race Suspension

BUCYRUS — An order countermanding a suspension ruling of the Ohio State Racing Commission was issued here Tuesday by Crawford County Common Pleas Judge John C. Carroll in the case of A. P. (Gus) Topper, Bucyrus race horse owner and trainer.

The commission's ruling, which was appealed by Topper, suspended him from racing for an indefinite period.

Judge Carroll based his suspension-lifting decision on a special provision of Ohio administrative procedure, which makes it possible for a common pleas court judge to rule on agency actions in case of hardship.

Topper's attorney contended that horse training and racing were his client's only occupations and that suspension of his racing rights would work a hardship on him.

The suspension order was made by the racing commission after Topper allegedly removed a horse from a detention barn at Painesville Raceway, May 2, before a urine sample could be taken. The horse, Bright Sun, had won the first race and was ordered to the retention barn where saliva and urine tests are taken of winners to check fo possible use of illegal stimulants.

Topper, in his appearance before Judge Carroll, charged that the veterinarian and his helpers planned to use an unorthodox method to obtain the urine sample and that the horse was removed because he was becoming nervous and non-cooperative.

The commission has 10 days to file complete records of the proceedings against Topper after which the appeal will be heard by Judge Carroll.

Moulders, Moose Capture Victories

Two Pony-Grad baseball games were played Tuesday night. In one, the Moulders took a 6-3 win from the Elks. Moose stickmen hammered out a 4-2 victory over the Eagles in the other.

The Moulders trailed the Elks 3-0 going into the fifth inning. One run in that frame, four in the sixth and a single tally in the seventh, however, put the game on ice for the eventual victors.

The Elks got their initial advantage on a two-run first frame and a one-run third.

Moody was credited with the mound victory. Evans was charged with the defeat.

Zeller doubled for the Moulders. Evans aided his own cause with two safeties.

The Moose tallied four times in the fourth inning to shade the Eagles, 4-2. The latter got one run in the first and another in the third but were held scoreless thereafter by Moose hurler Sanders, who chalked up the victory. Flesher was tagged with the loss.

All in all, Moose stickmen got four runs on two hits. Eagles batters reached Sanders for five safeties, but could turn out only two runs. Sanders wound up with six strikeouts; Flesher registered a trio of whiffs.

HIS DAD COULD HIT

EAST LANSING, Mich. (AP)—Sophomore outfielder John Fleser of Michigan State is the son of Don Fleser, Spartan athlete who was a hard hitting athlete some 32 years ago.

Mac's, Independents Post Easy Wins in Commercial Contests

Mac's Trading Post and the Marion Independents exploded for lopsided wins in Commercial League play Tuesday night at Garfield Park. The Trading Post battered Trinity Lutheran by a 10-1 count and the Independents battered the Marion Merchants in an 11-3 rout.

Trinity managed one run in the first inning on a walk, two infield outs and a double by Lundquist. After that, however, it was all Mac's. Lill, Charles Leffler and Seiter were the only other Trinity batters to pick up hits off Bill Trimmer.

A hit and an an error gave Mac's two runs in the second. The winners added three in the fourth on three hits, an error and two sacrifices. Two of the three hits were homeruns by Harbolt and Baker. Three more came home in the fifth on two hits and two walks. Jack Daum smacked a homer in that uprising. Two runs came home in the sixth frame. Charley Rizzo collected two of Mac's eight hits.

The Independents scored all 11 runs in the first four innings, scoring two in the first and second, four in the third and three in the fourth. The Independents uncovered a new "Murderers' Row" in one of their biggest offensive thrusts of the year. Jim Riley went four for four, hitting a pair of singles, a double and a home run. Fritz Walters pounded out four singles and Don Johns collected three in four trips to the plate including a pair of doubles and a single. Sherm McKinniss, the winning hurler, also hammered a home run.

The Merchants scored a pair in the fifth inning on a walk, a fielder's choice, a hit batsman and a triple by Jim Kunkle. Two errors, two wild pitches, a fielder's choice and two walks gave the Merchants a tally in the sixth. They were held to three hits by McKinniss.

Schiff's and Baker Wood Teams Win

Three Little League baseball games were played Tuesday night, a pair in the Federal loop and one in the National circuit.

In National action, Schiff slipped past MPS by a 7-6 count, getting seven runs on five hits. The victors scored twice in the first inning, four times in the fifth and once in the seventh.

MPS tallied six times in the fourth frame and rapped eight safeties in all.

Roseberry was the winning pitcher. He came on in relief in the fifth with the bases loaded. Two strikeouts and a forceout at the plate killed the MPS threat. Phillips was nicked for the loss.

In Federal play, Baldauf and Whirlpool played to a 6-6 tie, with the balance of the game to be played off Friday night. And, Baker Wood outscored Empire 14-11 in a game called in the fourth inning because of the curfew.

Baldauf scored twice in the first, fourth and fifth frames; Whirlpool tallied three times in the fourth and sixth.

Baker Wood scored once in the first inning, then chalked up 13 runs in a second frame blast. Empire got one in the first, four in the third and six in the fourth.

Groza Signs 13th Pact at Cleveland

CLEVELAND (AP)—The Cleveland Browns Tuesday signed seven players for the 1958 National Football League season, including veteran tackle Lou (The Toe) Groza and defensive halfback Warren Lahr.

Groza, the great kicking specialist, will be starting his 13th season with the Browns when training camp opens at Hiram College July 23. Lahr will go into his 10th season.

Others signed include halfbacks Ray Renfro and Milt Campbell, end Fred Clarke, tackle Mike McCormack, and guard Jim Ray Smith, all of the offensive unit.

Princeton's unbeaten 1933 football team scored 217 points in nine games. The Tigers allowed one safety for two points for their foes.

Exemptions Offered

Congress To Open New Sports Study

WASHINGTON (AP) — Baseball officials declared their support today for a new sports bill that would give professional team sports some flat exemptions from the antitrust laws.

But one club officer, who has called baseball big business and disputed Commissioner Ford Frick several times questioned whether the proposal would solve all the sport's practical problems.

Tax attorney C. Lee De Orsey, a director of the Washington Senators, said for one thing that proposed self - regulation of major league telecasts may not effectively protect the minors from ruinous losses at the gate.

Questions Willingness

"I don't know that the clubs by themselves will agree not to compete with the minors via television," De Orsey told a reporter.

Self-control of radio and TV broadcasts is one of the specific references in legislation introduced Tuesday by Representatives Kenneth B. Keating (R-NY) William E. Miller (R-NY), Francis E. Walter (D-Pa) and Oren Harris (D-Ark). They also proposed excluding from anti-trust regulation such practices as player trades and drafts, the contract reserve clause tying a player to his team and territorial rights.

The measure would affect pro baseball, football, basketball and ice hockey. So would the original measure by Rep. Emanuel Celler (D-NY), which proponents of the substitute hope to knock out when the subject comes before the full House—probably next week.

Celler's bill has been approved by a thin majority of the House Judiciary Committee, which he heads. It would exempt contracts and agreements found "reasonably necessary" to keep the sports alive.

Celler said the substitute would give club owners a blank check to act as they please, even engage in "barbarous" activities to the detriment of players and the public alike.

Frick, in New York, said baseball could support the new bill.

Paul Porter, an attorney for the majors, said in Washington it is something "everybody can live with."

Kid Gavilan Faces Bahama in TV Tiff

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP) — Former welterweight champion Kid Gavilan makes what may be his last middleweight appearance tonight in a 10 round encounter with Yama Bahama.

Gavilan, veteran contender from Camaguey, Cuba, is trimming down for a return to the welter ranks after a series of fights in the heavier bracket.

The fight will be televised nationally (by ABC) starting at 9 p.m. (EST).

Pre-Seniors Golf Tourney Led by Springfield Entry

SPRINGFIELD, Ohio (AP)—E. W. Carmichael of Springfield held a two-stroke lead as 88 golfers moved into the second and final round of the 1958 Ohio Pre-Seniors Golf Tournament here today.

Carmichael, a member of the host Springfield Country Club, carded a two-under par 70 Tuesday over the 6,528-yard course.

Bob Ross Sr., also of Springfield and father of the current state amateur champion, Bob Jr., posted a 72 to take second place in the opening round.

The tourney is divided into three age classifications, Class A—40-44, Class B—45-49 and Class C—50-54. Previously 50-54-year - old golfers participated in the seniors tournament, but because of the increasing number of seniors entries, the 50-54 category moved to the pre-seniors play.

Trailing Carmichael in the Class A division were two Youngstown men, Steve Pipoly and Tom Jones. Both had 73s. Ross is in the Class B section.

John Jacob of Canton topped the Class C play with a 77.

Burdette Sinks Cubs 6-3, Braves Increase NL Lead

By The Associated Press

Lew Burdette, the hero of the 1957 World Series with three complete game victories in an eight-day span, now has two in four weeks, but that long-sought second one has hoisted the Milwaukee Braves into a 2½-game National League lead—their biggest bulge of the season.

The crewcut right-hander went all the way for the first time in six starts since May 22 Tuesday night. He stayed out of serious trouble with a nine-hitter as the Braves beat the Chicago Cubs 6-3.

Giants Defeated 6-1

Second-place San Francisco, the only other club to get as far as 2½ games ahead this year, was shipped 6-1 at Pittsburgh. The St. Louis Cardinals defeated Cincinnati 10-4 and joined the Pirates in jumping past the Redlegs for a third-place tie, just two games behind San Francisco.

Burdette (5-4) walked but one and struck out four. He gave up a first-inning run — on singles by Tony Taylor, Al Dark and Lee Walls, who had seven of the Cubs' nine hits among them — then blanked Chicago on three hits until the eighth. Bobby Thomson tagged him for his eighth homer with two out in the ninth.

Frank Torre, Johnny Logan and Harry Hanebrink each drove in two runs for the Braves. A bases-loaded walk and Hanebrink's two-run single bagged it in a three-run fifth against Moe Drabowsky, now 4-7.

Big Klu Leads Attack

Ted Kluszewski, who was 3-for-4, Ramon Mejias and Bill Virdon each hit triples in a five-run Pirate second against loser Johnny Antonelli (6-5). Rookie Curt Raydon gave up a first-pitch home run to Felipe Alou, then blanked the Giants on eight hits.

The Phils scored six runs in the eighth, before the Dodgers retired a man, to overhaul a 5-3 Los Angeles lead. The tie breaking and winning runs scored on a wild throw by losing reliever Clem Labine (3-2). Jack Sanford won it.

TOP PERFORMER. Vaughn Williams Tuesday was named as the top performer with the 1958 Harding High School track team and was presented the Ferguson trophy for his achievements. The trophy is presented each year by Robert Ferguson of 322 Belmont St. to the Prexy senior deemed most valuable to the team. Mr. Ferguson presented the trophy while Coach Ken Somerlot (center) looks on.

Jets Win 7-2, Cut Rochester Club's Margin

By The Associated Press

The best friend a pitcher can have is a big cluster of runs early.

This was very evident in Tuesday night's International League activity as the winning teams used the big inning to discourage their foes.

The Montreal Royals beat the Havana Sugar Kings 6-4. For six innings there were just three hits in the game. In the seventh the Royals got three runs. In the bottom half the Sugar Kings exploded for four. Then the Royals came back with another three in the eighth to sew it up.

The Toronto Maple Leafs blanked the Miami Marlins 5-0. The Columbus Jets beat the Rochester Red Wings 7-2 and the Buffalo Bisons split a twin bill with the Richmond Virginians, winning the opener 1-0 and dropping the nightcap 7-2.

Whammy Douglas did not allow a hit after the fifth inning in notching his eighth victory for Columbus. Tom Burgess' two-run homer gave the Red Wings a short lived 2-0 lead in the third. The Jets answered back with four runs in their half of the fourth and tallied three more in the seventh.

Ohio All-Stars Prep for Cage Battle at Troy

TROY, Ohio (AP)—Ohio puts its most talented scholastic basketball stars on display at Hobart Arena here Friday night in the first all-senior North-South all-star contest.

The two 10-man squads are overflowing with all-state talent, including all five first stringers from The Associated Press Class AA honor selections.

Practice sessions are under way, under Southern coach Paul Walker of Middletown and Northern Mentor John Broski of Cleveland East Tech's state champions.

Follow Grid Pattern

The Ohio High School Basketball Coaches Assn., sponsor of the Yankee-Rebel scrap, hopes to follow the pattern of the gridiron coaches in making the cage contest an annual event. The North-South grid game is slated in mid-August in Canton, and has been held annually since 1946.

Canton has been awarded the football game for 1959, making it four years in a row for Stark County, but Troy plans to bid for the 1960 contest.

Hundreds of basketball coaches are due here Friday for a day-long clinic at which the speakers will be Tom Blackburn of the University of Dayton, George Smith of the University of Cincinnati, Joe Martin of Lockland Wayne High School, and Wayne Ashbaugh of Zanesville.

Assisted by Baker

Assisting Walker in coaching the Rebels is J. Franklin Miller of Pleasantville, while Broski's aide is Dan Baker of Northwestern's Class A state champions. All four coaches took their teams to the state tournament this year.

Rosters of the all-star teams, with the height of the players:

South: Jerry Lucas, Middletown, 6-9½; Tom Sizer, Middletown, 6-2; Mel Nowell, Columbus East, 6-2; Bud Olsen, Dayton Belmont, 6-6; Gary Gearhart, Dixie, 6-3; Gordon Mickey, Chillicothe, 6-6; Ralph Snead, Ironton, 6-1; Buddy Miller, Pleasantville, 6-2; John Havlicek, Bridgeport, 6-4, and Ed Bode, Bethel, 6-4.

North: Norm Schmotzer, Cleveland St. Ignatius, 6 - 8; Charles Jones, Canton McKinley, 6-4; Jerry Hallabrin, Mansfield, 5-6; Gerald Warfield, Cleveland East Tech, 5-9; Bobby Greene, Akron South, 6-1; Gary Roggenburg, Cleveland St. Ignatius, 6-6; Wesley Jones, Toledo Scott, 6-3; Don Mewhort, Toledo Devilbiss, 6-4; Clair Karcher, Findlay, 6-1; Paul Firth, Akron St. Mary, 6-1.

Galion Firm Defendant in $50,000 Suit

BUCYRUS — A $50,000 action for money was filed here Tuesday in Crawford County Common Pleas Court by Herman Crist of Galion against the Gerrow Motor Sales of Galion.

Crist claims he was injured permanently on Feb. 20, 1957, when he tripped over a wire cable at the used car lot of the firm while looking at cars on display. He charges that the cable had become loosened and that the defendant firm was aware of its condition.

According to his petition, the plaintiff suffered a compound fracture of the nose, which resulted in his nose being deformed permanently, and contusions of the chest, chin, right hand and right thigh. The injuries have resulted in the plaintiff becoming "exceedingly nervous and irritable, resulting in sleeplessness and headaches," his petition states.

Cloudbursts Drop 20 Inches of Rain In Western Texas

DALLAS (AP)—A few showers spattered Texas from El Paso in the west down the Rio Grande to Laredo today, and some heavy clouds hung over the southwestern Texas area ripped by flash floods Tuesday.

The streams in the hill country fell quickly back to their banks after racing madly for a time following cloudbursts of up to 20 inches of rain.

The floodwaters blocked highways and marooned hundreds of persons for a time.

Floyd Miller, 47, of San Angelo, drowned in Concho River. Narrow escapes were legion.

A cloud fragment dangled in front of the setting sun Tuesday and jittery Dallas residents reported two funnels skipping about near the city. But the Weather Bureau said they were mirages.

Miller was fishing when flood water rolled down the Concho. His stepson, Robert Robinson, 11, was swept into the water and Miller went in after him. He apparently was hit on the head by a piece of floating wood. Others rescued young Robinson

Time Running Out On Applying for Disability Benefits

June 30 is a very important date for many disabled people, Miss Dorothy Hilbert, district manager of the Marion social security office, said today.

Many people who are disabled have neglected to apply for the protection that is afforded them under the social security law, she said. Workers, both men and women, who have been disabled for more than a year have until June 30 to file application for the disability freeze protection, or if they are 50 years or older to file for disability benefits.

Those who have been seiously disabled for a prolonged period and fail to file by June 30 not only may lose their rights to disability protection, but their retirement and survivor benefits may also be reduced or lost entirely.

To be eligible under these disability provisions, the worker must meet the strict medical definition of disability in the law, and he must have been disabled before age 65. He must also have social security credit for at least 5 out of the 10 years before he became disabled and at least a year and one-half of the credit must have been earned in the three years just before the date of disability.

Miss Hilbert pointed out that while persons recently disabld should file a claim within a year of the date of their being disabled, the June 30, 1958, deadline does not apply to them.

Further information concerning the disability program is available from the social security office at 188 S. Main St.

Crestline Baptist Church Program Planned Sunday

CRESTLINE—The new home of the Crestline Conservative Baptist Church on N. Thoman St. will be dedicated Sunday at 2:30 p.m.

Guest speaker for the service will be a former pastor of the church, the Rev. Charles Moore, who is scheduled to leave soon for missionary service.

The church was established here 12 years ago under the sponsorship of the Rev. George Stitt of Shelby and Nelson Lee, Crestline layman. Since then the congregation has had a number of meeting places.

Members first met in a room of the I.O.O.F. Building on Crestline St. and later in the showroom of the Crestline Motor Sales. The South Side School served as a meeting place until five years ago when the congregation purchased a building at E. Bucyrus and Pierce streets where services have been held ever since.

In January, the congregation purchased the former Calvary Evangelical and Reformed Church at N. Thoman and John streets for a permanent place of worship.

The Rev. H. Walter Keib is pastor of the church and Mr. Lee is Sunday School superintendent. The first service was held in the church last Sunday night.

State Penal Practice, Theory Need Restudy, Haines Claims

BOWLING GREEN, Ohio (AP)—A state official says penal authorities should be questioning old theories and practices because two-thirds of the persons entering penitentiaries have previously been confined in some kind of institution.

The Ohio Probation and Parole Assn. was told this Tuesday by Dr. Robert Haines, director of the State Department of Mental Hygiene and Correction, at the association's 11th annual meeting.

The penitentiary repeaters are "certainly an indication that some of our old theories, assumptions and practices about prisons and prisoners are not sound or productive," he said.

He asserted that the United States' spiraling crime and delinquency rate, which in 1957 for the seventh consecutive year exceeded the two million mark, is one of this country's most challenging and resistant social problems of all time.

"The impact is felt by all of us . . . No segment of the community is spared," Haines said.

He urged that law enforcement, court services, probation, institutional work and parole not be considered separate entities, but be seen as parts of a continuing process.

Maury C. Koblentz, chief of the state's Division of Correction, told the organization, whose four-day meeting concludes today, that the community has the responsibility to halt crime. He said:

"We in the correction field can only treat the effect of crime and delinquency . . . The community must help our courts, institutions and police departments or the spiral of crime will continue upward indefinitely."

Koblentz said Ohio's correctional institutions are "busting at their seams."

The state has 11,500 inmates housed in institutions designed to accomodate 8,750, he stated, adding that an additional institution is being built at Lebanon and another is planned for Marion.

The overcrowded conditions also exist in juvenile institutions, John Ferguson, chief of the Bureau of Juvenile Research, Classification and training, said.

"With the rate of increase in juvenile delinquency, which has risen 88 per cent in the last 10 years, we must do something about the problem of overcrowding," he added.

He said a new 100-bed psychiatric treatment center and a 200-bed cottage-type institution will be built in Columbus, but that by 1965 they will be overcrowded.

Galion Council Okays Traffic Study, Report

Mansfield Engineers Employed To Begin Thoroughfare Plans

GALION — A resolution authorizing employment of an engineering firm to conduct a traffic study and prepare an engineering report on a major thoroughfare system for Galion and adjacent areas was passed Tuesday night by City Council.

The resolution authorizes the employment of Shaffer and Perrott and Associates of Mansfield to conduct the study and prepare the engineering report.

Council's action was the first definite step toward solving Galion's growing problem of traffic movement through the city. Estimated cost of the survey was placed at $7,500.

Ordinances passed included one to employ recreation personnel for city parks and purchase necessary park equipment; another authorizing the service-safety director to advertise for bids for the sale of a vacuum sludge filter no longer needed and an ordinance to proceed with improvement of Ash St.

Another measure passed was an ordinance to advertise for bids for the sale of switch gear and other equipment, no longer needed since the abandonment of the city's municipal light plant. Funds from the sale will be credited to the electric light fund.

The issuance of bonds in anticipation of collection of assessments for improvement of Wilson and McDonald avenues by hard surfacing, drainage, curbs and gutters, also was authorized.

Two other ordinances given third readings and passage, provided for improvements to an extension of Park St., Westgate Dr. and other streets in the vicinity by hard surfacing.

Cardinals Belt Redlegs 10-4, Nail 3rd Spot

CINCINNATI (AP) — Big Don Newcombe, a 20-game winner a couple of seasons ago with the Dodgers but a sorry 0 for 6 so far this year, will go to the mound for the Cincinnati Redlegs tonight. Lindy McDaniel (3-7) will pitch for St Louis.

Don made his first appearance for the Redlegs Tuesday night since Cincinnati acquired him in a trade with the Dodgers Sunday, but it was anything but auspicious. With two away in the sixth and the tie-breaking run on third, Newcombe came in to bat for Alex Grammas and struck out.

It didn't make much difference the way things turned out. St. Louis pushed across six runs in the ninth on three singles, two triples and a homer by Ken Boyer to break a 4-4 deadlock and hand the Redlegs their second straight defeat, 10-4.

The loss dropped the Redlegs to fifth and advanced St. Louis into a third place tie with Pittsburgh.

The Cardinals collected 31 hits off four Redleg pitchers including three homers, a two-run clout by Curt Flood in the second and Boyer's two-run ninth inning smash and his solo performance in the sixth.

Of the Redlegs' nine hits, only one went for extra bases—a two-bagger by Don Hoak in the sixth.

Behind 3-0, Cincinnati woke up in the sixth. Johnny Temple walked and Jerry Lynch and George Crowe singled, filling the bases. Hoak's double scored all three, tieing the score.

Cincinnati made it 4-3 in the seventh, but the Cardinals came back to tie the game in the next frame.

Eddie Kasko led off the Cardinal parade in the ninth with a single. Phil Paine beat out a bunt and Don Blasingame singled to fill the bases. Joe Cunningham tripled, driving in three runs, then scored on Stan Musial's triple. Musial came home on Boyer's homer.

Pleasant Records Win at Caledonia

Pleasant's baseball nine clipped Caledonia 6-1 in a Marion County League game played Tuesday night at the losers' field.

The Pandas exploded for four runs in the first inning and then coasted to the win behind the three-hit pitching of Jeff Peacock.

Bill Baker opened the first inning with a walk. Gene Massie singled and Bob Bernow walked to load the bases. Peacock then lashed out a triple and was driven home by Rice. Two more runs were scored by the Pandas in the third inning on only one base hit.

Caledonia's only run came in the last frame on a single by Ray an error and a single by Tom Tomlin.

Peacock struck out 12 batters and walked five. He also starred at the plate with a double and the triple. Bob Agnes and Tomlin shared the pitching for Caledonia. They struck out 11 and walked seven

Rosewall Sharing Lead in Net Event

FOREST HILLS, N.Y. (AP) — Ken Rosewall, the 142-pound artist of pro tennis, today is the talk of the $15,000 Tournament of Champions. He's tied with defending champ Pancho Gonzales, each with 3 - 0 records, in the round-robin event.

The tiny Aussie and Gonzales are scheduled to play Thursday night. By then, Rosewall is expected to be 4-0. He meets fellow-Australian Rex Hartwig tonight. Gonzales is idle.

"The only way to beat Kenny," Gonzales said, "is to overpower him. You can't hope to outfinesse him. He's too good at that himself. And I can overpower him only when I'm at my best.

Rosewall outmaneuvered Aussie veteran Frank Sedgman, 6-4, 2-6, 6-3, Tuesday night.

Trading Post To Visit Prison Farm Saturday

Mac's Trading Post, Commercial League softball power, will travel to London Prison farm Saturday for its next road assignment.

The local team was nipped 5-3 in an 11-inning struggle last Saturday at Mansfield by the Gorman-Rupp powerhouse. Bud England and Mansfield's Ronnie Hunt locked horns in the long duel.

Don Williams gave Mac's an early lead by blasting a long double to left center and came home on an error. The winners came back with three runs in the seventh. In the eight the Marionites tie the scoe when Seiter walked. Dick Roseberry was hit by the pitcher and Merle Daum belted a double to right center to knot the count at 3-3.

The Mansfield victory came on a two-run pinch hit by Dick Carver after Creel had singled with two out in the 11th.

Thefts and Vandalism Are Reported to Sheriff

Theft of four tires from a horse trailer at the fairgrounds and a report of property damage on Uhler Rd. were being investigated today by sheriff's deputies.

Stanley Sobas of near New Bloomington told deputies late Tuesday that the tires were stolen from his trailer in a storage barn at the fairgrounds.

D. A. Howard of 704 Uhler Rd. reported at 9:50 a.m. today that a rose bush on his property was chopped down sometime after 11 p.m. Tuesday and that a mailbox and supporting post had been torn down previously.

New York Stock Market

NEW YORK (AP) — Motors were active and higher but the stock market as a whole declined in brisk dealings early this afternoon.

Chrysler led the motor group with a jump of about 2 points. Key stocks in other sections took losses running from fractions to a point or more. There was a scattering of plus signs.

Some of the best gainers in a recent advance were clipped in profit taking.

General Motors and Ford also were traded actively. Ford moved ahead about a point. GM rose a fraction.

Studebaker-Packard was higher on a large opening block but canceled the gain and enjoyed little turnover later.

U. S. Tobacco settled back for a fractional loss.

The leading steels were down. Aircrafts and rails showed fractional losses. Coppers were little changed.

Corporate bonds were mixed but showed a firmer tone in quiet dealings.
